Queen's Avenue Congregation Indorses the Board's Action.

No Minister But Their Choice Will Receive a Congregation.

Full Report of the Trustees' Action-Only Four Dissenting Votes.

A large and representative propor tion of the Queen's Avenue Methodist congregation assembled at the regular prayer meeting in Somerset Hall last! evening. Rev. Dr. Sanderson conducted the service, and at the conclusion said: "We have all looked with a great deal of anxiety to the time when the church officers would lay before you the proceedings of the last few months. This is an authentic record, so that the minds of the congregation might not be led away by false reports. Every church member will have the privilege to vote, but I will not answer any question put to me at the close; you must simply vote, and so if you are not in favor of the proceedings you can vote against them." At the close of the reading of the report the vote was stand taken by the board, which is thus indorsed by the congregation. Mr. R. J. C. Dawson read the report

To the Members and Adherents of Queen's Avenue Methodist Church: In August last a committee was appointed by the Quarterly Official Board to look out for a successor to the late Rev. J. W. Annis, after his third year. This committee met several times, and went over the ground thoroughly, and lad many names before them, but owing to the unexpected death of Mr. Annis in February last the committee had to look for a minister who would be changing June, 1895, instead large one.

The names were voted upon, and three times Dr. Daniels received a mapority of the votes cast, and it was decided by a vote of 12 to 6 to invite Dr. Daniels to become our pastor for the ensuing conference year, some of the members of the board not voting.

When the first draft of the stationing committee appeared in the papers with a name other than our choice, the board was called together on June 25, at 7:30 p.m. The following resolution was car-

"The members of the Quarterly Board now assembled regret that their invitation, which was given to the Rev. Dr. Daniels, to become their pastor for the ensuing conference year, has not been accepted by stationing committee. We now feel bound in all honor and justice to stand by our invitation already given, andwhich passed the board three times, which invitation was duly sent to the Rev. Dr. Daniels, late chairman the Brandon district, and acknowledged by him under date of May 26. in which he thankfully accepted the invitation, subject, of course, to the action of the stationing committee.

We now beg to renew that invitation and respectfully request the stationing committee to comply, and would also call upon our lay representatives to conference to do all in their power to further the wishes of the Quarterly Board."

The resolution was caried by 17 to 4, some again remaining neutral. (Those This resolution was sent to conference by our recording secretary.

was also resolved that a special deputation be sent to conference to strengthen the hands of the lay representatives, and urge the appointment of the man of our choice.

It might be here stated, in reference to Dr. Daniels, the transfer committee had transferred Rev. Leo Gaetz from London to Manitoba Conference. This follows: transfer took place some weeks be-

Mr. Thomas McCormick and Mr. Geo. Robinson were the lay delegates appointed by our board to the conference, and they both laid the matter fully be-fore the stationing committee, and stat-ed that if any other than Dr. Daniels be sent to Queen's Avenue there would surely be trouble.

The stationing committee adjourned that evening without coming to a decision as to the appointment. The next night, when our lay representatives were absent, the committee decided to send Rev. A. The reply was "No," but two members of our board personally agreed to guarantee that this $400 would be raised for peace sake. It was shown that Mr. Cunningham was in town and he was telephoned for by Mr. Rigsby, and we the president, who informed us that there was no hurry; that if we did not ed to go to Dresden, and now notwith. ed to go to Dresden, and now, notwithstanding all that has been said and done, the conclusion reached by Messrs. Rev. Mr. McIntyre and Rev. Mr. Crews dissented to this decision.
It might be here stated that the late Crews dissented to this decision.

It might be here stated that the late chairman of this district had repeatedly urged our committee and board not to ask for the appointment of a man who had been only one year on his circuit, as the stationing committee was opposed to moving a man on invitation be-fore his term was completed.

But the stationing committee takes upon itself the responsibility of moving a one-year man to a church without invitation, without the knowledge of the Quarterly Board, and a man almost entirely unknown to the board. Rev. Mr. Cunningham." Carried by a standing vote of 27 to 2, and one neutral.

Dr. Eccles was instructed to wire Dr. Carman, who was in Nashville, Tenn., that our board would like to see him. Dr. Carman wired that he was passing through London on his way from Tennessee to the Lower Provinces, and a strong deputation from the quarterly board had about ten minutes with him. He stated that our church laws did not give the general superintendent any power in such cases, but he would write to the president immediately upon his arrival in Toronto.

There the case now rests, and the matter is fully and openly laid before you, and you are now in a position to judge correctly for yourselves whether our actions are in accordance with your views or otherwise.

Report on Temperance Raises a Breeze.

And Is Finally Withdrawn for Revision.

The Synod Finishes Business and Adjourns.

Election of Delegates to the Provincial Synod-Project to Form a New Diocese Postponed No Manitoba Schools Resolution.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON. Shortly before adjournment this morning the Synod received the third Shortly annual report of the committee on temperance. It had not been possible, the report said, for the committee to undertake any active work in the dio-cese, owing in a measure to the fact (and for this the members were thankful) that there was far less drinking and drunkenness in Canada, than in any other part of Britain. A second reason was that in the diocese there were not many large cities. There was a third reason why direct active work for temperance was limited—the exist ence of other societies, such as St. Andrew's Brotherhood, Christian Endeavor, King's Daughters, whose existence, however, was not lamented. "It is a cause of deep gratitude that true temperance principles are spreading throughout the land," continued the report," and it is a noteworthy fact (whether all agree with him, is another matter) that a bishop of the church in this land, namely, Bishop Bond, of Montreal, should say in adressing his Synod: 'I stand here to commend the cause of total abstinence, as an avowed abo-olitionist, and that this sentiment should be followed by the applause and approval of the Synod. Our own bishop has repeatedly, from his first charge onward, spoken in eloquent and unmistakable language in the cause."
The balance of the report was confined almost entirely to consideration of affairs in the old land.

The reading of the report created a little confusion and heavy-weight attacks were made upon the committee for going out of their jurisdiction. The first three clauses were promptly dropped, and subsequently Rev. Mr. Taylor chairman of lor, chairman of the committee, asked permission to WITHDRAW THE WHOLE REPORT. It seemed to him that a man was little short of a fool who would roll himself up into a ball and say to others: "Kick me." (Laughter.) No doubt the report was very imperfect, but the committee had striven to do their duty. He moved the withdrawal of the report. Rev. George B. Sage, of London West, seconded, expressing regret that the diocese was not more alive to the great question of social reform. He hoped the day would soon come when a report like the one presented would be treated in a very different spirit. Bishop Baldwin considered it going to the extreme to withdraw the whole report. Those who objected to the first few clauses, he thought, had no objection to temperance; on the contrary, there was no doubt but that the whole Synod was in touch with it. Bishop Baldwin assured the discours to temperance, but to the improper wording of the report.

In amendment Canon Young moved that the whole report be referred back to the committee for revision and modification. Carried.

EXTENDING THE EPISCOPATE. The committee on church and parsonage buildings reported, and were reappointed.

The committee on the extension of the church episcopate in its report stated that no mere rearrangement of boundaries of dioceses would meet the necessities of the church in regard to episcopal supervision. They recommended that a new diocese be constituted, comprising the counties of Grey, Bruce, Dufferin, Simcoe and North Welling-

Rev. Arthur Brown, in presenting the report, gave a history of the movement to form a new diocese. It would, he considered, be a good thing for the church as a whole, for, said Mr. Brown, we cannot shut our eyes to the fact that the church is not making the progress that it should.

The effect of such a change from a financial standpoint was ably discussed hy Messrs. T. H. Luscombe and A. C. Clarke, Rev. Canon Young, Chas. Jenkins, Mr. Dymond and others, and Mr. Jenkins offered an amendment that the committee suspend their consideration until the question of the future of Algoma is dealt with by the Provincial Synod, as in the proposed rearrangement the territory of Algoma is left in-

Before putting the vote on the adoption of the clause and the amendment, Bishop Baldwin expressed approval of the proposition to reduce the extent of the dioceses. Mr. Jenkins' amendment carried by a large majority.
