CHINESE
ENVOY TO GERMANY.

Prince Chun's Appointment Gives Satisfaction.

Viceroy of Southern Provinces Are Paying Indemnities for Mission Property Destroyed.

Peking, Jan. 13.-Prince Chun, brother of the emperor, paid a visit to the German legation today. His appointment as Chinese envoy to Germany to make apologies for the murder of Baron Von Ketteler has been approved. It is probable that Prince Su will accompany him.

PAYING INDEMNITIES.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 14.-The Chinese viceroys of the southern provinces are paying American, English and French indemnities for destroyed mission property. The French have received $75,000 for the burning of Catholic missions in the Canton prefecture. The claims are being paid with money raised by special assessments on rich gentry and by the leasing of gambling monopolies.

Captain Chou, who participated in the Chu Chou massacres, has been sentenced to death.

SIGNED THE NOTE.

Peking, Sunday, Jan. 13.-The joint note of the powers has finally been signed by the Chinese peace commissioners. Prince Ching signed yesterday and Li Hung Chang, who is better, signed it today.

FLAT DENIALS.

The foreign office declares that the report of the session of the new Chawm Shan Hai Kuan railroad to Russia by Lord Salisbury is unfounded. It points out that Great Britain has no power to cede it, as the railroad is Chinese property. Moreover, it is stipulated that it shall not be mortgaged to any foreign government or company. There have been reports that Russian agents are endeavoring to buy out the British interests, but the British government is not connected therewith. Representations have been made to Russia in behalf of the English bondholders, as the action of Russian officials is considered to have exceeded the military requirements, and the question of compensation will come up when the line is restored to its owners. A convention on this subject is now under discussion.

M. De Giers, the Russian minister to China, denies the current report that Russia is endeavoring to make a special agreement with China irrespective of other powers. I do not believe that Russia has any intention of keeping Manchuria.

The Russians say they will formally turn over the railroad to the Germans immediately.

M. De Giers objects to the British attitude in refusing to permit the Russians to distribute rice and wheat to destitute Chinese in the British section.

CALL TO MISSIONARIES.

New York, Jan. 12.-Robert E. Speer, one of the secretaries of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, received a cablegram today from the Rev. George F. Fitch, who is at Shanghai. The message consisted simply of the code word "Forward," which, being interpreted, means that all missionaries destined for work in the Central China Presbyterian mission, should start for China at once. This includes both missionaries home on furlough and also some who go to a foreign land for the first time.

A THOUSAND BOXERS KILLED.
A French force is reported to have defeated a body of Boxers west of Pao Tiag Fu, killing a thousand.

TARGET PRACTICE.

Shanghai, Jan. 13.-The Italian consul at Shanghai, in explaining the presence of Italian warships at San-Mun Bay, says they went there for target practice.

It is again reported here that the allies are preparing to enter the Province of Shan Si.

THE INVADERS BEATEN BACK!

British Subject Who Acted as Peace Commissioner Flogged and Shot.

Absurd Estimate of the Boers' Strength---Excellent Work of Howard's Scouts---Canadians Chased Boers Five Miles, Taking Prisoners.

London, Jan. 14.-The war office has received this dispatch from Lord Kitchener:

"Pretoria, Sunday, Jan. 13.-About 1,400 Boers crossed the line, attacking both Zurfontein and Kaalfontein stations, but were driven off. They are being pursued by a cavalry brigade."

Lord Kitchener reports also several skirmishes at different points, with trifling British losses, and adds:

"Three agents of the peace commissioners were taken as prisoners to Dewet's laager, near Lindley, Jan. 10. One who was a British subject, was flogged, and then shot. The other two burghers were flogged by Dewet's orders."

STRONG INDIGNATION EXPRESSED.

The brief report of the fate of the three members of the peace committee who were sent to Gen. Dewet, excited the deepest indignation on all sides. Some papers express the hope that Lord Kitchener has been misled by false Kaffir reports, but it is generally felt that he would not have reported the matter to the war office without undoubted evidence.

The Daily Mail heads the report with the word "Murder," and declares against any further attempt to coax the enemy into submission. "Dewet has placed himself outside the pale of humanity," says the Daily Mail, "and not proclamations, but large reinforcements must be our safeguard."

The Morning Post says: "This marks the point where the guerrilla phase ends and the bandit phase begins."

All the papers appeal strongly to the government to hurry forward reinforcements, since it is evident that the Boer leaders have now become desperate, and attempts at conciliation are useless.

THE BOER ATTACKS.

Details of the attacks upon Kaalfontein and Zurfontein stations show that there were only small garrisons of about 120 men at each station. The British had excellent trenches, which enabled them to withstand the attacks until the Boers, having ascertained that reinforcements were coming to the garrison, retired.

At Zurfontein a party of Boers in khaki succeeded in capturing a British patrol of eight men, whom they subsequently liberated.

A Pretoria dispatch, dated Saturday, Jan. 12, says: "Last night the Boers cut the wires between Irene and Olfantsfontein stations. Early this morning 800 Boers under Commandant Beaver, invested Kaalfontein station. A hot rifle fire and shell fire with two field pieces and a Maxim was maintained for six hours. An armored train and reinforcements were sent from Pretoria, but before they had arrived on the scene the garrison had driven off the Boers, who retired with a transport train half a mile long. The Boers blew up the line half a mile beyond Kaalfontein, compelling the mail train to return here. It is supposed their object was to obtain supplies, a great quantity of which are stored at Kaalfontein. The British had no casualties."

DARING RAIDERS.

Pretoria, Jan. 12.-The Boers have been making some daring raids in attempts to seize cattle near the British outposts along the eastern line. Gens. Babington and Gordon are having skirmishes daily with the Boers south of the Magaliesburg. These are believed to number about 1,000.

Commander-in-Chief Botha is reported to be organizing a series of attacks in the east, at which those at Belfast and other places on Monday night and Tuesday morning were the beginning.

THE BOERS' STRENGTH.

Veteran officers who have followed the war closely, laugh at the absurd estimates of the strength of the Boers still in the field. 8,000 with Botha, 4,000 with Delarey, 3,000 with Dewet, 5,000 in Griqualand, 5,000 in Cape Colony, and 5,000 scattered here and there. As there are 15,000 Boer prisoners and at least 8,000 and possibly 10,000 have died from wounds and disease, these estimates make up an aggregate which is utterly irreconcilable with the census.

EXCELLENT WORK OF CANADIANS.

London, Jan. 13.-A special dispatch from Pretoria, dated Jan. 11, and describing the fight of Jan. 9, near Comandoo Nek, dwells upon the excellent work of Howard's Scouts, a new corps composed of Canadians who remained in South Africa and re-enlisted. These scouts chased the retreating Boers a distance of five miles, harassing their rear and taking some prisoners. One of Delarey's horses with wallets containing the commandant's papers, was also captured.

NOT CONFIRMED.

London, Jan. 12.-Nothing is known here to confirm the Paris report, published in the United States, that ex-

President Kruger is seriously ill and in great danger. He had practically recovered from his illness Jan. 9, when his physicians ceased issuing bulletins regarding his health.

The Pretoria correspondent of the London Daily Mail announces the return to Pretoria of Mr. Pretorius, a former president of the late South African Republic, from a futile endeavor to persuade the Boer leaders to surrender.

The Chamber of Mines, at Cape Town, has finally arranged with the military authorities for the formation of a guard for the protection of the mines. A thousand men will shortly leave the coast towns for Johannesburg for this purpose. Fifteen men will be detailed to each mine.

Sir Alfred Milner writes to a correspondent in England: "It would be useless for me to notice the wholesale lies that are spread about concerning me. If I attempted to do so I would have no time for anything else."

BOER HOPES.

London, Jan. 4.-The Daily Telegraph publishes a three-column dispatch from its correspondent in Brussels, giving a conversation with Dr. Leyds and Mr. Abram Fischer. The general purport of the statement of the Boer representatives is that "Great Britain is still under false impressions concerning the war, as she always has been," and that "the Boers are fully resolved to continue the struggle and are as hopeful now as they were a year ago of preserving their independence."

Home-Coming Canadians.

WARMLY WELCOMED.

Woodstock, Ont., Jan. 14.-The town was aroused to a state of enthusiasm again Saturday night upon the arrival of Trooper Thomson from South Africa. He was met at the C. P. R. station by a large crowd of citizens. From there he was conveyed to the town hall, where an address and a gold watch was presented to him by the mayor. The hall was packed to the doors and the enthusiasm was intense. Trooper George Thomson participated in over 40 engagements, and was decorated with one of the best men of the regiment.

SERGEANT COLTER.

Sergeant Chas. Colter, who returned to his home in Petrolia Saturday, got a tremendous reception. The train on which he arrived was met by upwards of 2,000 people. Sergeant Colter was carried through the town to his residence, headed by the brass band. The Petrolia Cadets and carriages followed. The town was gaily decorated. Sergeant Colter was presented with an address and a solid gold watch and chain.

AT PARIS.

E. Hume and A. Flannigan, members of the second contingent, were given a grand reception. They were met at the station by the mayor and council, the Paris band and an immense crowd of people, who with flags and other decorations escorted them to their homes. At night a torch-light procession, with fireworks, paraded in honor of the event. The men will be sent with gold watches.

AT WINDSOR.

Trooper Edward Allen, of Windsor, and the Kingsville soldiers from the South African war did not arrive in Windsor in time for the thanksgiving service at St. Andrew's Church. Allen stopped over in Toronto for the reception to the returning soldiers, and will arrive in Windsor today (Monday). The Essex Fusiliers will turn out to receive him and the Kingsville boys who accompany him. Allen writes his father, Customs Collector Allen, that he has traveled over 3,000 miles on horseback during his absence. He participated in all the battles under Lord Roberts.

AT HAMILTON.

About twenty-five of the Hamilton artillerymen who went to South Africa arrived home Saturday afternoon, and were right royally received by fellow-citizens. Thousands gathered on and around the platform, and the cheering was deafening. The warriors were met by the Fourth Field Battery, 13th Battalion and band, and were escorted to sleighs. A procession was formed, which marched to the drill hall. Here Mayor Teetzel, mayor-elect, Major Hendrie, Major McLaren and others made brief addresses of welcome. In the evening the returned artillerymen were banqueted and later on will be presented with gold watches, suitably inscribed. Among the Hamilton men who failed to return were James Porous, who lost one of his feet, and was invalided to England; W. H. Hamill, invalided to England; John McNab, enteric fever, in Pretoria hospital; E. Hudson, fever, Pretoria hospital; A. Goodbrand, fever, Pretoria hospital; Corp. Anderson, killed, and W. E. McDonald, who joined the South African Scouts.

BRANTFORD'S SEVEN.

Seven of Brantford's South African contingent arrived here Saturday evening. They were met at the station by the Dufferin Rifles Band, Dufferin Rifle Regiment, members of the Burford cavalry, the citizens' band, and an immense crowd of citizens were also present to welcome them home and escort them to the hall, where addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor Cock-shutt. Mayor-elect D. B. Wood and other prominent citizens, after which the boys were escorted to their respective homes.

GUNNER GRIFFIN.

At Kemptville hundreds of enthusiastic citizens assembled at the depot to welcome home Gunner T. N. Griffin. Reeve Ferguson read an address of welcome, the band played "McGowan's Home," and the warmest of handshakes were extended the returned soldier.

EIGHTEEN AT ST. KITTS.

Eighteen of the South African heroes arrived home on Saturday and were given an enthusiastic reception. Lieut. Col. Gregory, of the Second Dragoons, met them at Toronto, and escorted them home. Their names are: McGowan, Hallett, Van, Every, Clendenning, Loosen, Martin, Edwards, Gare, St. Catharines, Bennett, Chippeva, Baldwin, Oakland, England, Stamford, Taylor, Guelph, Palmer, Speck, Niagara Falls and Greenfield.

PRIVATE SEMPLE.

A monster procession took place at Tottenham to celebrate the return of Pte. W. C. Semple, of the second Canadian contingent. The town was gaily decorated, and a procession of 50 teams, including a handsome four-in-hand, in which the hero was placed, drove to his home and then back to the square, where he was presented with a magnificent gold watch and a purse, in all over $300. The town went wild. A patriotic concert in the evening was largely attended.

News at a Glance.

Mr. John Bowes' store and dwelling and Weaver Bros., store at Elora, were destroyed by fire Friday.

Miss Georgie Jamieson, M. A., of Napanee, has been appointed assistant tutor in languages in Queen's College, Kingston.

The Lord's Day Alliance has successfully prosecuted two vendors who sold Detroit Sunday papers in Chatham on Sunday.
