A DEADLY FLASH! TURNED BACK THE EMIGRANTS

Seven Unconscious People Rescued From a House Struck and Fired by Lightning.

Lewistown, Ill., June 26.—During the severe thunderstorm that occurred in this section on Saturday night the house of John R. Estes, six miles east of this city, was struck by lightning, and burned to the ground. The seven inmates of the house were all stunned by the shock, and but for the timely arrival of some neighboring farmers, all would have perished. As it was, they were rescued in an unconscious condition.

Estes and one of his hired men, Don Nott, were badly burned, and may die.

LOSS OF THE LUSITANIA!

Bound for Montreal With Five Hundred Passengers on Board.

The Steamer Was Wrecked Last Night Off Cape Ballard, Nfld.—No Word Received as Yet in Regard to the Passengers and Crew.

St. Johns, Nfld., June 26.—The steamer Lusitania, with 500 passengers on board, was wrecked last night off Cape Ballard.

The steamer belongs to the Orient Steam Navigation Company, and was bound from Liverpool for Montreal in charge of Capt. McNay.

The Lusitania belongs to none of the Canadian or United States companies, but is chartered by any of them during the season. She is a New Zealand ship.

Her second last trip was made from Montreal to Liverpool for a Canadian company, and it was advertised that she would soon make a trip for the Franco-Canadian line.

Cape Ballard is situated on the coast of Newfoundland, about 60 miles south of St. John's.

The Lusitania was built at Liverpool by Laird Bros., in 1871, and is 280 feet long.

THE LEIPZIG BANK SMASH.

June 26.—The crash of the Leipzig Bank was a complete surprise to the Berlin bourse, where yesterday the bank shares were quoted at 140. This failure now turns out to be worse than at first reported. The Leipzig Bank had practically become the owner of the Cassel Trocknung Company, which in its turn was financially unsound. Well informed Berlin financiers fear that the Leipzig Bank will save little, if anything, out of the wreck. Immediately after the Leipzig failure became known here there was almost a panic in bank stocks, including that of the Darmstadt National Bank, which fell considerably. Nearly all other values on the bourse dropped, while the stock of the Saxon Bank, the Leipzig Savings Bank, the Leipzig Mortgage Bank and the Leipzig Magdeburg Bank were struck off the Berlin quotations. The Frankfurt main bourse reacted similarly on news of the Leipzig failure, and bank stock dealt in there losing from 8 to 9 points. The newspapers tonight intimate that the directors of the Leipzig Bank will be criminally prosecuted. The Lokal Anzeiger estimates the liabilities of the Leipzig Bank at $5,000,000 to 90,000,000 marks, against assets amounting to 45,000,000 marks.

THE KING'S WINE.

The second day of the auction sale of King Edward's sherry drew a large attendance, says the New York World dispatch from London. Wines from the Buckingham Palace cellar were sold off, Americans being among the most active bidders. J. Pierpont Morgan bid in several cases, as did Charles T. Yerkes and Foxhall Keene. Richard Croker's representative bought 51 dozen bottles of pale golden sherry, from St. James' Palace, bottled in 1875. The Tammany leader's agent also bought liberally from Buckingham Palace bins. The auctioneer's sons bought freely, and the auctioneers received several commissions to bid in lots for New Yorkers. The bottles are blown with the royal arms.

DEFRAUDERS FOUND GUILTY.

Manila, June 26.—Harold M. Pitt, manager of Evans & Co., government contractors, who has been on trial on charges of improperly purchasing stores, was acquitted today.

Four other purchasers of commissary stores were found guilty and fined $1,000 each.

A MEMBER EXPELLED.

Melbourne, Victoria, June 26.—Amid scenes of excitement in the crowded galleries the Federal Assembly today by a vote of 64 to 17, expelled Mr. Finlay, editor of a local labor organ, for republishing in his paper the article from the Irish People, of Dublin, dated May 10, violently attacking King Edward, which caused the seizure of the magazine containing the weekly periodical by the police of Dublin, Cork, Limerick and other towns of Ireland.

TWELVE-POUNDER EXPLODES.

London, June 26.—During artillery practice on the Isle of Wight yesterday, the twelfth of a 12-pound rifle blew out, killing a private of the Royal Regiment of Artillery, and one enlisted man, and wounding eight other men, three of whom will die. A war during the same regiment, was also slightly wounded by the explosion.

MALTA'S POPULATION.

London, June 26.—The recent census of Malta gives the total population, including troops, at 85,000, an increase in ten years of about 3,000.

GERMANY WILL PROFIT.
St. Petersburg, June 26.—The Russian ministry of finance regards Secretary Gage's explanation of the pecuniary question to be beside the point. Russia has no reason to complain in the form of increased duties on American goods for the second time, because Russia does not admit the correctness of the Gage's interpretation of the tariff laws of the United States. A leading Russian says:

"The entire trade of the United States with Russia can be lost while awaiting the decision of the court and until the matter is hastened. I understand that the case comes before the lower court next November. The Americans are apparently not in a hurry to resume a business which is now falling into the hands of the Germans."

SPANISH RIOT.

Pampluna, Spain, June 26.—The fact that a soldier here omitted to take off his cap while a jubilee procession was passing led to a serious conflict between civilians and military men, during which swords, sticks and fists were freely used. The procession was broken up and many persons were injured. Order was restored by the police. There was serious street fighting as a result of a second jubilee procession yesterday. Some soldiers refused to uncover while the procession passed, and the civilians attacked them. The procession was dispersed. Three persons were seriously injured and many suffered lesser injuries.

LORD RUSSELL MUST PAY $7,500.

London, June 26.—An important factor in the bigamy charge against Lord Russell developed today when the court made absolute the decree obtained by George Summerville in his divorce suit against his wife, Mollie Summerville. Lord Russell was named as co-respondent in the suit, which was begun some time after Mrs. Summerville and Lord Russell were married in Nevada.
