impatiently, "or do you wish me to?"
He held up his hands as if to stay her; then, not even lifting his hat, he turned and left her.
Out in the park, out of her sight, he stood and looked round him like a man who had received an overwhelming shock, which, for the time, has bereft him of his senses; then he went towards his horse, which was quietly nibbling at the boughs.

As he did so he heard a sound behind him, a sob, such as one hears from the woman whose heart is breaking.
He dropped the bridle, and a shudder ran through him as he stood for a moment awestruck; then he sprang

"I was going to the house," he said, and he spoke slowly, as if he were keeping a strict guard upon his words, his very tone. "But it was not to see Mr. Vanley; I wanted to see you."

"To see me!" she echoed, and, his gaze fixed on the ground, he did not see the sudden expansion of her eyes or the swift rush of blood to her face. or the swift rush of blood to her face.
"To see me," and her hand stole shyly to her heart for an instant.

"Yes," he said. "You are surprised that I, who am almost a stranger. should wish to speak to you alone; but one is not always the master of his own actions, not always a free agent. Miss Vanley, will you promise to listen patiently to me, however much I shall try your patience, your sweet gentleness? Will you not sit down?" She sank on to the grass, and looked up at him, and yet not at him, for company which has been giving conher eyes were heavy with a strange certs and selling medicine here for the with such a full joy every word of his musical voice.

"I shall try your patience," he said, several hundred votes.

stand here before you as a suitora man pleading for something dearer hopes to be spared for some time to re-even than life!" His voice breaks for ceive their pleasant calls. "Yes, dearer than life. You see I find my task difficult; even now, see I find my task difficult; even now, now that I have ventured to begin, I would draw back if I could—" She glanced up at him, half-amazedly, half-sorrowfully. "For I realize how great, how precious a treasure it is that I am striving for. But I am not free—a stronger will than mine impels me.Miss Vanley, forget if you can—I know it will be hard—that I am almost a stranger that you know, nothing of me and The Rev. T. G. A. Wright attended the ger, that you know nothing of me, and listen to me. Do not send me away until I have told you what I came to tell you, what I would have kept from even now, if I had not given my

Again the look swept over her face. "You will not wonder that a man should love you. I don't think it is possible for anyone to hear you, to see you, to be in your presence for one No words can describe the infinite tenderness and reverence and yet the infinite sadness of his voice. At that moment, even so soon, she could have

"No!" he continued, "No one could help loving you, and no one loves you more dearly, more truly, more passion-ately. That I can say with perfect truth, and I beg, I implore you, to believe it. There are better, wiser men, but none in all the world who will more greatly prize the treasure of your love, if you will give it to him." She sat, her hands clasped, her eyes hidden under their long lashes. hidden under their long lashes. All thought, all remembrance of Bartley Bradstone, of her father's impending ruin, had passed from her. She was living, absorbed, in this the one, the great moment of her existence.

"If a life's devotion can insure your happiness, I can pledge it. I do so. Of all else I say nothing. You know something of him already; I think, I know, you can trust him. What will you say to me, Olivia?" The name slipped from him unawares. "What answer shall I get? Will you trust yourself to the man who loves you with all his heart and soul? Will you make him the happiest or the most wretched man in all the world?"

He had grown earnest, for all his guard upon his words and voice, and as he made his final appeal he bent over She lifted her eyes to his, then raised

He took it and his own closed round dropped her hand as if some hidden pain had overmastered him, and sprang like a wild animal breaking its bonds, to his feet. "Bertie is a happy man!"

He turned slowly, and she saw that "My first start as a fighter," he his face was as white as her own, and said recently, "was in my school days reflected something of her own horror. "Yes, Bertie," he said, almost sternas if struggling against some terheaving, her hands clenching spasmod-

Yes," he went on more hurriedly. "He has loved you since you were play-mates, loved you with all his heart, and soul, so passionately that he fear-ed, dreaded even to tell you, lest you should make light of it. Why do you look at me so? Are you angry? God knows it was unwillingly enough that I did it! I would sooner—but he won me over! I was mad to promise him, but I did so, and— Miss Vanley!— Olivia!"—and he drew nearer—"Did you think"—his breath came fast, a light, almost fierce, flashed in his eyes

-"did you think- Heavens, I can't speak it!" She had found nerve and strengththe strength which is born of shame. All her soul seemed burning with the shame of the mistake she had made; every nerve throbbed. "I-I"—she panted—"I don't under-stand. Of course, it was—Bertie." He drew back and looked at her, fix-

"Of course-it was-Bertie. I-knew Yes, I knew," and she almost stamped her foot, "and I meant to tell you, if you had given me time, that-it was-

'No!" he echoed. "No!" she repeated, almost flercely.
"No, a hundred times! Go and tell him so—and tell him that if I loved him as he says he—he loves me, I would not stoop to marry a man who sends another to—to—to plead for him."

He still looked at her with a grim, sion. Yes," with a strange thrill, "you you did your best."

He stood with his hands behind his back, his head lowered under the storm of her fierce, maiden passion.

"Why do you not go?" she repeated, "Sidewalk. "That was enough, and before he could get up his guard I laid him in the gutter. A ring was formed right there, and young Pat and myself fought 21 rounds. I did not see him for a good while after that, and some friends said he was in bed."

come here. Were you going to the house? My father is in, I know. I will back. She was lying full length on [To be Continued.]

IN THAMESFORD

Next Meeting of the Literary Society-Voted Most Popular Young Lady.

[Advertiser's Special Correspondence.] Thainesford, Jan. 11. - The medicine shyness, and it seemed to her that he must hear her heart beat, it echoed prize of a parlor lamp to the most pop-with a suppressed sigh, still looking on the ground. "I came this morning to Carty will be pleased to hear that she has apparently recovered her usual her face grew pale and her lips quivered, and a wild thrill of joy ran their kindness to her during her illness. through her, "as a humble suitor, as Although an aged lady of 88 years, she

The Bachelors' Club held a hop in the town hall on Friday night, which was

The Rev. T. G. A. Wright attended the services in connection with the consecra-tion of the new Bishop of Huron at Lon-don on Thursday. Several from here went to Ingersoll on Thursday night to hear Hon. George W. Ross. About the same number attended Mr. Whitney's meeting on Saturday night. Miss Eckardt, who has been ill for about a month, is somewhat improved, but is not gaining in strength as fast as her many friends would wish.

The third meeting of the Thamesford Literary Society will be held in the Foresters' Hall on Friday night. Lieut.-Col. McQueen, of Woodstock, will be present and give an address on "Canada". He McQueen, of Woodstock, will be present and give an address on "Canada." He will also sing a number of patriotic songs. We look forward to a real good night. All members should make it a point to be present if possible.

Mr. George Mills has completed the telephone line to Evelyn. He expects to build one to Banner in the near future. Dave Picket, the black-white-face comedian and lightning change artist, will give one of his popular concerts in the town hall on Thursday night.

Miss L. McLeod is on a two weeks' visit to friends in Evelyn.

Miss L. McLeod is on a two weeks' visit to friends in Evelyn.

Miss Wirst, who has been a guest at the home of Mr. T. Eckardt for some time, has left for her home at Mount

Wrapperettes, regular 10c, for ... 7c

Eiderdown, regular 35c, for ... 21c

Eiderdown, regular 35c, for ... 21c

21. Astrachan (curl cloth), white and

OF LONG, LONG AGO

When the First Battle Was Fought by Fitzsimmons -Event Recalled.

"Bob" Fitzsimmons at times becomes reminiscent, and when he does it with a quick, almost painful grasp. tells some good stories, some on himself and at times at the expense of his his company, "A Fight for Love," sevsaid, almost hoarsely, turning away eral friends visited him one evening Her hand fell into her lap, her face in his dressing room. It was then he grew white, her eyes expanded with a told how he first entered the prize look of doubt, dread, horror. ring.

"My first start as a fighter," he not long before I had won my first rible impulse. "It is of Bertie-Lord championship," he went on, "and my granville—I have been speaking. It is for him I have been pleading." appetite was wetted for further honors when Jem Mace, the old champion, came along with a circus and helped "It is of Bertie-Lord championship," he went on, "and my me to gratify my ambition. A gold watch was offered to the best amateur in a tournament, and I was the first to enter. "Mace, however, was a good fellow, and when he gave another tournament soon after, a better watch was put up I was in for a fight sure, for I weighed a lusty lot of scrappers among the thought they should have given me the watch then. On the third night London. I stacked up against a stocky, redfought eight rounds, and the house Carrothers.....Right went wild with excitement, for it was Arthurs.....Left certainly a grand try-out for both of AbramRover ... us. The finishing blow was a solar plexus, like that which gave me the championship at Carson.

"I have often been asked how I obtained "I have often been asked how I obtained my strength of arm and shoulder, and I don't mind telling you that it came from fighting and subduing crazy horses brought into the New Zealand blacksmith shop where I was employed.

"If there was anything I used to like it was to be assigned to the matter of shoeing a brute of this kind. It not only strengthened the arm, but when kicked strengthened the arm, but when kicked clear across the shop it developed the sand in a fellow and gratified the am-

"Is that your answer?" he asked, in so low a tone that it was almost inaudible.

"It is," she responded, with a pant. "Why do you not go?You can tell him," with a cruel smile, "that you did your best, that you are not to be blamed; that if he had had any chance you would have succeeded in your — mission. Yes," with a strange thrill "you bittion to succeed. "One of my first fights in Australia was with young Pat McCrea, whose father ran an opposition shop to that of Mr. Allen, where I was an apprentice. Between the two shops there was a feud which kept all Sydney in an uproar. One evening, while going to our home, our bunch of apprentices met the McCreas, and young Pat said something I did not like, at the same time pushing me off the sidewalk.

Is whiskey

Special Bargains Every Hour Thursday!

$10,000 worth of staple, seasonable Drygoods, Clothing and Furnishings, bought at 57c on the dollar, to be sold fast. Store is rented and we must move. Thursday we will hold another of our popular special hourly bargain sales, when goods will be sold at prices which would be impossible had they been bought in the regular way.

9 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Embroideries, Cambric, Muslin and Flannelette, regular 15c, for8 Regular 12c, for6c Regular 10c, for5c Regular 8c, for4

 Regular 4c, for
 .2c

 Regular 3c, for
 .1½c

 Ladies' Cashmere Gloves, colored, large sizes, regular 25c, for10c Veiling, dainty, choice and up-to-date, regular 25c to 40c, for15c Wools, regular 5c, for per ounce 2c Laces, regular 10c, for5c Regular 8c. for4c Regular 6c, for Regular 3c, for1½c Regular 2c, for1c Sateens, colored, regular 15c, 18c and 25c, for10c Fancy Art Sateen for Waists, regular 40c, for19c 10. Apron Muslins, regular 121/2c and 12½c, for3c 12. Fancy Curtain Muslin, regular 40c, for5c

13. Men's Unshrinkable Wool Underwear (Standfield's), regular $1 65, wear (Penman's), regular $1 65, regular 50c, for35c 16. Men's Heavy Wool Underwear, Flannelette, regular 10c, for 7c Flannelette, regular 9c, for6½c Flannelette, regular 8c, for5¾c Flannelette, regular 6c, for 5c 9. Wrapperettes, regular 121/2c, for 9c Wrapperettes, regular 10c, for ... 7c 20. Eiderdown, regular 50c, for ... 29c

Canton Flannel, regular 10c, for 71/4c Canton Flannel, regular 16c, for 12c

Canton Flannel, blue, regular 15c, for 9c Canton Flannel, red, regular 12½c, for 8½

10 a.m. to II a.m.

Misses' Plain Cashmere Hose, sizes Black Velvet Ribbon, regular 17c,

Black Velvet Ribbon, regular 7c, for30 Colored Cambric Embroideries, from 5c to 15c. Your choice at, a yard2 4. White Button Net, 2 yards wide, ular 75c, for 45c Ladies' Plain Cashmere Hose, reg-ular 45c, for Ladies' Plain Cashmere Hose, regular 30c and 35c, for 20. Ladies' Ribbed Cashmere Hose, regular 40c, for 25c Ladies' Ribbed Cashmere Hose, reg-ular 50c, for 29c Children's Plain Cashmere Hose. regular 25c and 27c, for15c

regular $1. for..... Men's White Shirts, laundered, ..51c

Men's Neglige Shirts, regular 90c, for......55c Men's Black Sateen Shirts, regular 85c, for...... 51c There is a choice selection of Men's

9. Men's Silk Ties, regular 50c, for 31c Men's Silk Ties, regular 25c, for..16c Men's Silk Ties, regular 20c, for..12c 10. Men's Linen Collars, regular 15c for...... 50 11. Gray Factory Cotton, regular 8c

Linings, regular 10c, for6c Linings, regular 8c, for4c Linings, regular 5c, for 13 Sating half off regular selling price. 14. Wools, regular 5c ounce, for, per 15. Dress Goods, brown and navy blue serge, regular 60c, for Dress Goods, brown cloth, regular

50c, for29c
Dress Goods, black luster, regular 50c, for 310 Dress Goods, red serge, regular 30c, for 19c Dress Goods, black and plaid, reg-Dress Goods, gray luster, regular

Corsets, Lady Curzon, regular $1 25, for 690 Corsets, Paris Lady, regular $1 00, for 51c Corsets, Leader, regular 65c, for 39c Corsets, Classique, regular 75c, for 41c

Children's Plain Cashmere Hose, regular 30c and 35c, for 19c Children's Plain Cashmere Hose,

Men's White Shirts, laundered, 3. Heavy Wool Socks (black), regu-

Heavy Cotton Socks, regular 20c, for10c 4. Ladies' Wool Fleece Vests, regular 25c, for17c Ladies' Wool Fleece Vests, regular 50c, for32c Ladies' Wool Fleece Vests, regular 75c, for40c Ladies' Wool Fleece Drawers, reg-ular 50c, for32c Ladies' Wool Fleece Drawers, regular 85c, for49c Ladies' Wool Fleece Drawers, regular $1 00, for57c . Men's Unshrinkable Wool Underwear (Standfield's), regular $1 65, for $1 05

6. Men's Unshrinkable Wool Underwear (Penman's), regular $1 65, Men's Fleece-Lined Underwear, regular 50c, for 35c Men's Heavy Wool Underwear, regular $1 00, for 69c Men's Heavy Lined Leather Gloves, regular $1 10, for 65c Men's Heavy Chamois Gloves, regular $1 00 for 62c Men's Heavy Moleskin Gloves, regular 50c, for 29c Men's Heavy Gray Duck Gloves, Mitts, regular 50c, for 30c Men's Heavy Wool-Lined Buckskin Mitts, regular $1 10, for 65c Men's Heavy Wool Mitts, regular for 190 10. Satins, black and drab, regular 75e and 90c, for 49c Silks, taffeta, in black, cardinal and black and white check, reg-

Silk, taffeta, in black, regular 75c, Silk, taffeta, in drab, stone color, slate and pink striped, regular $1 00 and $1 10, for 61c Mervilleaux Silk, $1 00 and $1 10. for

12. Fancy Curtain Muslin, in white,

Fancy Curtain Muslin, in white, Polka Dot Muslin, in white, regular, lar 15c, for 8½c 13. Lace Curtains, regular $1 50, for 99c Lace Curtains, regular $2 00, for

......$1 29 14. Felt. regular 80c. for 51c 15. Cretonne, regular 50c, for29c Regular 30c, for15c Regular 20c, for12½c 16. Art Sateens, regular 20c, for 121/2c Art Sateens, regular 15c, for ..91/2c 17. Fancy Curtain Muslin in colors, regular 10c, for5½c

12 to 1 o'clock.

We will repeat the bargains offered

I p.m. to 2 p.m. We will offer again the bargains

2 p.m. to 3 p.m.

The list of bargins offered from 11 a.m. to 12 o'clock will be again offered

3 p.m. to 4 p.m. The 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. list will be yours again from 3 to 4 p.m.

4 p.m. to 5 p.m.

5 p.m. to 6 p.m. regular 18c, for 9c will again be offered.

This is a GENUINE CLOSING-OUT SALE to the finish, of $10,000 worth of well-bought Staple Drygoods, Gents' Furnishings and Clothing, bought at 57c on the dollar. The Bank is in a hurry and we must move—and so the stock must move too, and that speedily. Hence the Prices. B. KEENLEYSIDE, ORDERS BY MAIL CAREFULLY FILLED.

HARD FOUGHT GAME WAS LOST BY THE HORTONS AT SIMCOE

in Cornwall, England. Well, it was Londoners Led in First Half, hockey team, and was instrumental in the formation of the International But Went Back in Second -Games Elsewhere.

A fast game of hockey was played last night at Simcoe between the team | of that town and the Hortons, of this city. After a hard fight-one of the hardest ever seen in Simcoe-the home team won by a score of 7 to 6. At the conditions and won out by a score then about 125 pounds and there were of 7 to 6. Carrothers, London's right wing, put up the game of the evening, other ten.

"The first night I finished four in from one to three rounds, and the served a different story would have to be told. As it was no discredit second night put away four more. I comes to the Hortons through losing Reynolds......Goal Hurley haired fighter like myself, who was Livingstone....Point Everett Powell...... Piett Misner Grassett Referee, P. Layden, of Paris.

Ayr, Ont., Jan. 10,-The scheduled match in the O. H. A. intermediate series between Berlin and Ayr was played here tonight, in which Berlin was fortunate in winning by a score of 6 to 3. The score within two minutes of full time stood three all. Berlin played a very fast game and checked very close. The home team as a whole played well.

Preston, Ont., Jan. 10.-The intermediate O. H. A. game tonight be-tween Preston and Brantford resulted to 3 in favor of Preston.

Goderich, Ont., Jan. 10. — Goderich won from Clinton in the hockey match nere last night. It was a walk-over for Goderich from the very start, Clinton not being able to hold the puck for many minutes at a time. The to 2, in favor of the Soo. Victoria Harbor, Jan. 10.-Before a fast game of the intermediate O. H.

Bracebridge, Ont., Jan. 10. - In the irst game of the season in the intermediate O. H. A. series played here last night Bracebridge Club defeated Parry Sound 8 goals to 6.

Midland, Ont., Jan. 10. - In the junior O. H. A. match played here Gravenhurst defeated Midland by a score of 12 to 6.

Paris, Ont., Jan. 10.-Stratford went down before the local intermediate O. A. team here tonight in scheduled game by a score of 7 goals to 6. The game was a splendid ex- CHANGES IN AGREEMENT hibition and very closely contested throughout, neither team showing very much superiority in any particular. In the first half the score was 3 to 2 in favor of Paris.

Tilbury, Ont., Jan. 10.—The Tilbury Hockey Club defeated the Detroit Stars here tonight by a score of 7 to "Buck" Buchanan, Ingersoll. The line-up: Detroit—McCaron, Dowse, White. Burns, Hobbs, Pulver, Matheson. Tilbury—Sloan, Keith, Cowley, Mara, Montgomery, Sloan, Richardson.

GIANT ROSE WORSTED BY A LITTLE JAP

This jiu jitsu joke is reaching the tiresome stage. A New York paper, Hockey League. On account of his Japanese game, remarks: "Ralph Rose, the champion shotdeath the game was called with twelve minutes yet to play. Score, 5 putter, was tugging about with a jitsu sharp only a couple of weeks ago in the gymnasium of the Chicago A.

A. The little Jap suddenly twined crowd of 2,000 people last night Victoria Harbor defeated Midland in a himself in some mysterious manner about the big athlete's left leg, giving in favor of Midland. At full time, 8 hip and back. Rose would not give in, to Ottawa to make a bid for the Stansoon after, a better watch was put up for the prize, and I was invited to enter. There were 11 competitors, and second half the home team reversed score 10 to 9 in the home team's favor. score 10 to 9 in the home team's favor. would be twisted into a knot, Rose small antagonist, the twist that he back and nearly made it impossible for stretch their legs. him to compete in the shot-put at Madison Square Garden, He still complains of the strain." Rose, almost in a sick bed from the Jap's mauling, could do no better than to break a world's record. Had he steered clear of the jiu jitsu stuff he might have got the mark for the planet Mars as well.

mission began with the consideration of the changes in the National agreeOttawa boy.

wing, whose home is in Aylmer, Ont., showed some of his old-time speed in an exhibition three-round contest with Spike Sullivan. Sharkey boxed Sulli-3. The game was a fast one and was ment desired by the National Associawitnessed by a large crowd. Referee tion of Minor Leagues. President Powers, of the Eastern League; Judge Kavanaugh, president of the Southern League; President Murnane, of the New England League: Managers Hanlon, of Baltimore, and Stallings, of Buf-Toronto, Jan. 10.—In the intermediate O. H. A. series tonight the Argonauts defeated Orangeville by 8 to 5. of them urging great consideration for The game was rough and the visitors the minor leagues. The first point to were outmatched. In the junior series come up is the increase in the price for many minutes at a time. The score at half time was 12 to 2, and at the finish 21 to 5. The line-up was as follows:

Goderich—Goal. D. McIvor: point.

Were outmatched. In the junior series to be paid for drafting minor league players, and the decreasing of the number of players to be thus taken number of players to be thus taken from any one team. Ban Johnson, the provident of the American League, dea score of 16 to 3. It was a very follows:

Goderich—Goal, D. McIvor; point, K. Campbell; coverpoint, C. Harris; rover, McCaw; center, W. McCarthy; left wing, A. McIvor; right wing, D. McDonald.
Clinton — Goal, W. McRae; point, G. Universe at the Jubilee Rink, Both teams had good practices last night. Gundy; coverpoint, W. Doherty; rover, P. Matheson; center, C. Sheppard; left wing, J. Doherty; right wing, J. Mc-Kenzie.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Jan. 10.—
A friendly come of horizon was a very one-sided contest throughout.

Both local intermediate O. H. A. teams had good practices last night; the American Leagues to the minor leagues regarding from any one team. Ban Johnson, the president of the American Leagues to the minor leagues regarding from any one team. Ban Johnson, the president of the American Leagues to the minor leagues of the number of players to be thus taken from any one team. Ban Johnson, the president of the American Leagues to the minor leagues of the number of players to be thus taken from any one team. Ban Johnson, the president of the American Leagues to the minor leagues of the number of players to be thus taken from any one team. Ban Johnson, the president of the American Leagues to the minor leagues to the minor leagues of the number of players to be thus taken from any one team. Ban Johnson, the president of the American Leagues to the minor leagues of the number of players to be thus taken from any one team. Ban Johnson, the president of the American Leagues to the minor leagues of the number of players to be thus taken from any one team. Ban Johnson, the president of the American Leagues to the minor leagues of the number of players. Instead of the plan for a the was opposed to the requirement, and the was opposed to the reduction of the president of the American Leagues to the minor leagues of the number of players. Instead of the players and the decreasing of the number of players tiresome stage. A New York paper, in the course of an article on the Japanese game, remarks:

KLONDIKERS ARE ON THE WAY TO FIGHT FOR THE STANLEY CUP

Heavy Team From Far North days before they left they defeated a team of stay-at-homes who had challeng-defeated them by the score of 4 to 1. There are four clubs in Dawson, and the team mer Boy With It.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 10. — Speeding skagway the team took the steamer Dolphin to Seattle, from where they were transferred to Vancouver by Canadian which left here yesterday afternoon is Pacific Railway. They were only in Vanfast game of the intermediate O. H. about the big athlete's left leg, giving which left here yesterday afternoon is conver one day, and left there on Friday A. The score at half time was 2 to 4 it a sharp twist, and wrenching Rose's the Dawson City hockey team en route last.

> caught a grip on the jiu-jitsuist's hockeyists transformed from gold-seekthroat and threw him off. Although he ers to cup-hunters, were in the city. throat and threw him off. Although he ers to cup-hunters, were in the city. Succeeded in ridding himself of his train from the west was nearly obtawa. Delegations have met them at the control of the train from the west was nearly obtawa. three hours late in arriving, and the received in the first place hurt his players had only time to dine and way. There were seven in the party, but when they left they were reinforced by Lorne Hannay, the erstwhile Brandon cover-point who has been figuring on cover-point who has been figuring on lack of exercise has put them all to the the forward line of the Victoria team bad again, and they will require at least of this city.

The Dawson men are all former eastern-

Other members of the team are Albert

BEING TAKEN UP

Other members of the team are Albert
J. Forrest, goal-tender, who comes from Three Rivers, Que.; J. K. Johnston point, formerly of Ottawa; D. R. McLennan, rover, Cornwall, Ont., a product who is famous in lacrosse annals of the Factory Town; Norman A. Watt, right wing, whose home is in Aylmer, Ont., who is anxious to fight Jim Corbett, who is anxious to fight J Weldy Young, captain and cover-point, was unable to leave Dawson, owing to the elections, and C. L. Bennett, another the big crowd that he is still able to the elections, and c. I. Beiliet, and the star of the team, had to stop at home because of the illness of his wife. A telegram received at Vancouver from the TURF. Dawson stated that transportation for one player should be left there, and the players are under the impression that Young is following them and will be in Ottawa next week. There is no other player who would be sent under the circumstances.

The players think they will surprise Ottawa. They have been informed that the easterners cosider the challenge somewhat in the nature of a joke, but, though now going east is a composite seven picked from the lot.

The team left Dawson City Dec. 19, and "mushed" to Skagway, where they laid five days through missing the boat. From

The entire trip will have taken them just 23 days when they reach the capital. All along the line the Klondikers have For two brief hours the enterprising been receiving expressions of good-will of hockey enthusiasts, who apparently are a unit in the desire to see the Yukon various places and cheered them on their

a week will be requested, as the players are all in poor condition after their long trip. When the team left Dawson City the players were in good condition, but a week of hard work on skates to get of this city,

The Dawson men are all former easternerns, and Manitoba has two representatives in the party besides Hannay. They are G. A. Kennedy. left wing, and H. N. Smith, center. who hail from West Selkirk.

Other members of the term are Albert.

A put up another great battle.

YESTERDAY'S TURF WINNERS At New Orleans - Monte, 3 to 5; Lieut. Rice, 15 to 1; Kittie Platt, 3 to 5; Coruscate, 4 to 5; Treacy, 14 to 5; Montebank, 7 to 5.

All those suffering with

Boils, Scrofula, Eczema

Weaver's Syrup

invaluable to cleanse the blood spoiling your home? Samaria Remedy will cure any drunkard Sample free. All letters confidential. Samaria Remedy Co., 22 Jordan Street, Toronto. Sample sent in plain sealed envelope.