The Fog Lifts and Releases Liners

Montreal, Sept. 28.—The dense fog which has hung over the St. Lawrence and tied up things at this port has lifted, and the Allan Lines, Victoria and Parisis, which were booked to leave on Friday and Saturday respectively, got away, as did the Dominion liner Ottawa, which was booked to sail on Saturday. The river

Couldn't Identify Bridge Victims

Hamilton, Sept. 28.—A pathetic scene was witnessed at the morgue today, when the relatives of the victims of the Mineral Springs disaster on the T. H. and R. of yesterday tried to identify the remains. All that remained of the three victims was a small heap of charred and blackened bones, lying in a small wicker box. Benjamin Brown, father of the unfortunate freeman, searched with the

Wheat Crops Show High Average

Ottawa, Sept. 28.—The crops and live stock report for the month ended Aug. 30 in Ontario, says the Ontario Bureau in spite of the drought conditions have been fairly maintained. West of the Great Lakes cereals were considerably affected by hot winds, but to a less extent in Manitoba, where I had the best of the crop. The estimated yield of wheat is 104,053,000 bushels as compared with 110,524,000 bushels at the end of July. The estimated yield of oats has fallen from 120,358,000 bushels to 107,869,000 bushels, and of barley from 25,996,000 bushels to 25,951,000 bushels.

Premier at Jackson's Point

Three oads took part in the procession, the Twelfth York Rangers, the Newmarket Militia Band, and the Sutton Band. Hundreds of horse and enthusiastic supporters marched the two miles to the grounds. A feature of the parade was a detachment of one hundred young North York Liberals with Japanese parasols, bearing the Canadian ensign and the tricolor in honor of Sir Wilfrid. The Premier's personal bodyguard was a red-capped squad of sturdy young North York Yeomanry. The lads could ride well, and their mounts were of the highest quality. Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, one of the ablest ministers of justice Canada has ever had, and one who has assisted you in conducting the affairs of state.

Premier Fought His Friends

"The Government fought that issue to an end, fought it as vigorously as it is possible to fight a case, and absolutely regardless of the consequences. The Government was not only fighting the case against the Government, but it was fighting the case against the Government. The Government was not only fighting the case against the Government, but it was fighting the case against the Government. The Government was not only fighting the case against the Government, but it was fighting the case against the Government.
