ple of the Tory scandal he referred to an article in the Mail and Empire. That article, which was headed "Worse Than the Others," stated that two Ottawa Liberals, Messrs. Bronson and Ray, had been granted by the Government a gold mining concession on Bonanza Creek, in the Yukon. The article proceeded: "Nothing was done with the gold mine, and the Yukon people demanded that the concession be cancelled, whereupon the department of the interior intimated that cancellation had been determined upon." "As a matter of fact," said Mr. Aylesworth, "the department of the interior did more than intimate that cancellation had been determined upon, for the department did cancel the concession because it was of the opinion that the conditions of the concession had not been lived up to.
