A SUDDEN DROP
IN TOMATO PRICES

Opened at 35 Cents a Basket
But Fell to 15 to 20 Cents in Short While.

BUTCHERS' MEAT SLOW

Oats Were in Strong Demand at $1 60 to $1 62—Hay Offerings Were Light—The Quotations.

The rapid drop in the price of tomatoes was the feature of this morning's market. The market opened strong with them selling at 35c a basket, but before an hour had passed they were decreasing rapidly in price and before the close they were wholesaling at 15 to 20 cents a basket. The drop in this vicinity is comparatively small so far, though the recent rains promise a very large crop at a little later date. But yesterday there were large shipments from outside places, which resulted in the phenomenal drop noticed in this morning's market.

Other Vegetables.

Other vegetables remained practically unchanged in price.

Pickling onions were offered in some quantities at 15 cents a quart, and found a ready sale. Large onions were selling at $1 a bushel.

Peaches, plums, pears and dewberries were the chief fruits noticed in the market. As yet there is very little change in the price of these commodities. Butter was in good demand, and the price was a little stronger. Cocks sold at 20 to 21 cents, while some of extra quality brought 22 cents.

Meats and Grains.

Butchers' meats were again very slow in sale, and the amount offered was small. There was little, if any, change of price.

Oats were in strong demand, a couple of loads of old oats selling at $1 60 and $1 62, respectively. Some loads of new oats brought $1 50.

Hay was not offered in very large quantities despite the fact that there was a very keen demand. The price prevailing varied from $11 to $12, but all of first-class quality sold without difficulty at the higher figure. There were several loads of straw offered, this sold mostly at $8, though one load of wheat straw was reported sold at $7.
