

Madam, have you ever been to a Sale where the very low-priced "specials" were such as you wouldn't have?

—And have you bought some of the higher-priced articles—the price of which was "all right," but no lower than you would pay anywhere, anytime?

Did you realize you had been caught just like a fish by a skillful fisher? The store-keepers KNEW you wouldn't buy the shoddy thing they advertised. It was simply the BAIT thrown out to tempt you into taking the HOOK of the regular-priced article.

While the world endures, no doubt there will be people willing so to be caught, but if you prefer your sales without "bait," we invite you to INVESTIGATE this Raphael Sale of Suits.

Don't compare these prices with "bait" prices elsewhere. Take the price YOU are actually willing to pay and compare the style and quality obtainable here AT THAT PRICE with what the SAME PRICE will buy anywhere else. Isn't that fair?
