A colts' international match is proposed by a Toronto cricketer. The idea is a good one and should be followed up.—Montreal A bicycle tournament on a large scale is talked of as one of the attractions for the Midland central fair, which has been set for Sept. 30 and following days. Oxford and Cambridge united recently played London at association football and won by nine goals to none, avenging their defeat a year ago by four goals to nil.

Why are Toronto lacrosse, bicycle, football, cricket, snowshoe, and other clubs not electing delegates to the athletic con-vention to be held in this city next week? Betting is somewhat lively among those interested as to whether on appeal to the privy council the Ontario or Dominion license act will be sustained. The Ontario

The English turf is certainly in hard luck. It has lost the Duke of Westminster and Lord Falmouth, retired, and Count de la Grange, deceased, and now the death of his brother will compel the temporary seclusion of the Prince of Wales. W. R. Thompson and T. Moffat, Montreal's champion athletes, will very likely represent the Shamrock club at New York on May 10. Thompson will then leave for Kentucky, and Moffat for the old country, to defend his challenge cup.
