One of the saddest features of near every long and only partially succestrike is now seen in Kensington. strike is now seen in Kensington. The weavers are willing to return to their looms, and most of them have been received back, but a very considerable number find their places occupied by the men who were engaged by the mill-owners and given employment during the strike, and who are, of course, still retained. There is plenty of sympathy for the unfortunate weavers who are still out of place, and likely to remain so, but this will not keep the wolf from their doors. The Knights of Labor organization has become tired of the task of supporting these men, and they are now presented with the alternative of finding work of some sort other than that at which they are skilled, in an overcrowded labor market, or actually suffer for the necessaries of life. He Acted Wisely. "I am so weak I can hardly move, al run down with a chronic summer com-plaint," said one gentleman to another on our street the other day. "Now, take my advice," replied his friend, "go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extraot of Wild Strawberry. I never, have known it to fail in curing any kind of summer complaints."

Many people suffer from distressing sick headaches and bilious attacks of frequent occurrence which a bottle or two of Burdock Blood Bitters would entirely remov. It regulates the stomach, liver, bowels and blood to a healthy action, 246

—Mr. Henry Marshall, reeve of Dunn, writes: Some time ago I got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery from Mr. Harrison, and I consider it the very best medicine extant for Dyspepsia. This medicine is making marvelous cures in liver complaint, dyspepsia, etc., in purifying the blood and restoring manhood to full vigor.

The progress of medical enlighten-ment has led to the abandonment of many antiquated remedies of questionable value, and the adoption of newer and more naional ones. Prominent among the latter s Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Disovery and Dyspeptic Cure, the justly slebrated blood purifier, a comprehensive amily remedy for liver complaint, contipation, indigestion, loss of physical nergy, and female complaints.

For a family medicine Ayer's Sugar coated Pills are unrivaled. They root out se, as if by magic.
