FIFTEENTH YEAR

Cabinet.

The Orangemen of Western Ontario are holding their convention in the city, and when the House rose Hon. Clarke Wallace and Major Sam Hughes took the opportunity of introducing 40 or more of the stalwarts of the lodge to Sir John Thompson, who was sitting in his chair in the House. The Major and Controller seemed very proud of the "byes" as they came forward and shook hands with the First Minister.

Mr. Devlin spoke extemporaneously and with great vigor, and better than ever he has addressed the House before. After him came Mr. Tarte in a few words in French, but the House took little interest in what he had to say.

When the House met to-day a perfect deluge of blue books and returns were poured out on the table. These returns comprised the annual report on penitentiaries, the Dominion police report, public accounts, Auditor-General's report, life insurance report and returns relating to the Chambly Canal, the Prince Edward Island Railway, superannuation, unforeseen expanses A Deluge of Blue Books, Railway, superamulation, unforeseen expenses in 1893 and statements of Governor-Generals' warrants and the Auditor-General's office as to the annual report of the Department of Indian Affairs.

Ocean Freight Rates on Cattle.

Mr. Mulock introduced a bill respecting ocean freight rate on cattle. He explained that the bill fixed a maximum freight with provision for revision af such rates. In support of the bill he explained at some length the growth of the cattle trade and said that as all shipments had to be made by way of the St. Lawrence a practical monopoly was in the hands of the steamship companies, and they had been very arbitrary in their conduct. The farmers had been made to suffer because the middlemen would only pay very low rates because the steamship companies would not fix a freight rate until the cattle were on board. McCarthy's Dual Language, Bill.

Mr. McCarthy, in moving for leave to introduce his bill amending the Northwest Territories Act, said it was practically the same bill he had introduced last year and provided for the abolition of separate schools, and then complete abolition of the dual language. He disavowed any hostility to French-Canadians. He believed that the interests of the country would be best served when distinctions of nationality were done away with, as one ought not to perpetuate in the Northwest racial distinctions which unhappily existed in the Protections which unhappily existed in the Protections of Characteristics.

The votes for harbors and rivers in Ontario are: Kingston harbor, $5000; Fort Hope, repairs to breakwaters and provided for the abolition of the dual language. For the distinctions of piers and dredging, $10,000; Goderich harbor extension of piers and dredging, $10,000; Goderich harbor extension of piers and regairs, $3000; Port Rowan, wharf under contract, $5300; Owen Sound, harbor dredging, etc., $5000; Belleville harbor, $2000; Dyers' Bay, extension to wharf, $3500; general repairs and improvements to harbor, river and bridge works, $5000.

leneral Lord Roberts Says the Army Navy-Russian Aggression on the Indian Frontier-Protection Has Hindered the Growth of India. LONDON, March 20,-General Lord Roberts, ex-commander-in-chief of Her Majesty's forces in India, was the guest of the city of Newcastle to-day. In a speech acknowledging the freedom of the city Lord Roberts took occasion to express his views upon certain imposts by the Indian Government and his views on Indian affairs. He deplored the fact that protection was hindering the growth of commerce with India, but it was a fact, nevertheless. He thought it a great deal more necessary to strengthen the army than to augment the navy, though he thought both needed strengthening. There was nothing the navy could do, he said, to prevent Russian aggression in Afghanistan, but the army could do something. Unless the natives of the east were over-awed by an effective army he declared the Indian empire was doomed.
