

Wives! Mothers! Daughters! Just a Word With You!

A woman's organism is a very delicate thing—it very easily gets out of order—just like a delicate piece of machinery, it requires more than ordinary care and attention.

There are many signs which point to disorder, such as headaches, unaccountable pains in various parts of the body, listlessness, nervousness, irritableness, dizziness, faintness, backache, loss of appetite, depression, and many others.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of restoring thousands of suffering women to natural health and strength. For more than forty years it has been successfully carrying on this great work. Today it is known throughout the length and breadth of every land. You can't see it, but you can't see it as a helpful friend. Let it aid you.

Pointed Paragraphs

The new motor bill reads:—"No motor vehicle while travelling upon a highway shall have attached to it and exposed to view any flag, streamer, or similar decoration made of bunting, paper or similar material."

Hereafter no Chinese, Japanese or other person of Oriental race shall employ, in any capacity or have under his control any female white person in any factory, restaurant or laundry.

The Canadian Superintendent of Immigration anticipates a 50 per cent. falling in immigration from Great Britain, and a larger falling off in that from the European continent this year as compared with 1913.

When we see young people of both sexes preambulating the street in an aimless, listless, lackadaisical manner, and older ones, too, we wonder why they were sent into the world to drift hither and yon like so much drift-wood on the water.—Bowmanville Statesman.

The prosperity of a country is largely measured by the ease of its transportation and the primary factor in transportation is the road which leads from the producer to the market towns. We believe there is nothing that affects rural Ontario to the same extent as does its roads.

It would appear as though the only safe-guard against imposition by canvassers for books, newspapers, magazines, charitable institutions, and other objects is for the public absolutely to refuse patronage to anyone who is not known to them, and who cannot, on demand, present undoubted credentials as to their bona fides.

Dad's Dope

The corset manufacturers hope that the tango and other new fangled dances have not come to stay.

It sounds unseasonable to hear of the fall in the price of eggs in the spring.

As the warm weather approaches camphor balls are about the only seasonable entertainment.

Having made a meal of six teachers sent to instruct them, the natives of New Hebrides may be credited with a consuming desire for higher education.

Toronto is considering the establishment of a civic coal yard. Trouble might be found getting experienced help as the employees would be getting the sack every day.

Fate seems determined to thwart Andrew Carnegie's consuming desire to die poor. While attending a banquet in New York the other night, the ironmaster dropped a dime out of his pocket. In searching for the missing coin he not only found it but a nickle also.

A movement has been started in Washington for a "plain clothes Easter." It will receive hearty support of the great majority who have to wear them to say nothing of the large number of middle aged and elderly men called upon to pay the season's fashion tax.

Death of Mrs. Geo. Maguire

A well known and respected resident of Ailsa Craig passed away on Monday, March 23rd, in the person of Mrs. Geo. Maguire. Mrs. Maguire had been ailing for some time but until a short time before her death it was not realized that the grim reaper was so near. The late Mrs. Maguire was born at Watford in 1871 and lived there with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ingram, until she was 18 years old when she moved to Sarnia, where on the 1st of May, 1895, she became the life partner of Mr. Geo. Maguire. They lived but one year in Sarnia, moving to Ailsa Craig in 1896 with her husband and resided there ever since except for a couple of years at London. She is survived by her husband and five children, one daughter and four sons, and also by two sisters, Mrs. Walter Parker, of London, and Mrs. John Spath, of Troy, N. Y., and two brothers, John and Joseph Ingram, of Winnipeg. The funeral was held on Wednesday, March 25th, to Nairn cemetery. Revs. Geddes and Meyer had charge of the service. Those from a distance who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. R. Wittv, of Point Edward, Miss Margaret Lamb, of Watford, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ferguson, of London, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Parker and two daughters, of London.

Maple Sugar Biscuit

Make a biscuit dough with one quart of flour, three teaspoonsful of baking powder, one-half teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of butter, and just milk enough to make a soft dough, when ready to roll out, stir in one cupful of maple sugar, cut in very small pieces, not larger than a pea. Roll out, cut into small biscuits and bake quickly in a hot oven.

Keeps Produce Perfect

A concrete root cellar is always dry, clean and sanitary. It is proof against heat, cold, water, fire and rats. Although the greater part of it is underground, it cannot crumble or rot away. It is permanent and needs no repairs.

Tell us to send you this handsomely illustrated free book "What the Farmer can do with Concrete." It contains the fullest information about concrete root cellars and other farm buildings that never wear out and shows how you can build them at small cost.

Where Charity Begins

The old adage, "Charity begins at home," would be a most selfish one if any word other than "begins" were used. The adage says that it begins there. It doesn't say it ends there.

The development of this community begins at home. It shouldn't end there, but should begin there. You should not only complain because Main street is not improved, but you might take a look at your own back alley as well.

Watford is not all Main street. It is not made up merely of a post office, a library, store buildings, churches and electric lights. The good-looking town is the town with good-looking homes and tidy premises. It is the homes that reflect the spirit of the people.

If you have a house, keep it in repair. If you have not, build one.
