has to be at all trained, care should be taken to fix thereon, clear and definite impressions of the truths of religion, and a strict adherence to a regular and perspicuous exposition of every point of Christian faith.—This will embrace all the distinct features of the doctrine of Christ, which, when clearly and thoroughly understood, will not fail, by Gods Grace to take firm hold on the mind, and their mutual connection will be soon seen and valued. The Child should, if duty be properly performed, be thoroughly instructed in all which the Church regards as important.
He should have explained to him, not only the doctrines, but the ministry, the worship, and the discipline of the Church;—He should be armed at all points, so, as in after life, to shew himself the man of God, the faithful Soldier and Servant of Christ—one of those, whom Christ has Created unto himself a peculiar people zealous of good works. The greater care, also, should be taken, that all books used in the Class, as well as those sent forth from the Shelves of the lending library, be such, and such only, as agree with the Church, in all her doctrines, and enforce those principles, by which, as a religious body, we are governed and distinguished; that our holy and apostolic Church, may not only be well known, but have that place in the hearts and affections of all throughout our Country, which she is so eminently entitled to occupy, in all her prayers, and in all her lessons, both doctrinal and practical.

The period hitherto devoted to afternoon Service, is in future to be appropriated to Sunday School teaching, in addition to the time usually allotted in the morning for that purpose; which will, it is to be hoped, answer all the wishes of those parents who have been in the habit of sending their Children elsewhere in the afternoon, in search of instruction.

To the FREEHOLDERS of the
COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.
Gentlemen,
I congratulate you on the number of Candidates for the honorable distinction of representing us in the provincial parliament.
I was one of these Candidates, but a confidence in the talents and integrity of some of the remaining seven, renders it no longer necessary in my own mind, that I should continue to solicit that honor—therefore I shall decline it and descend from my seat among the Candidates to exercise my undoubted right as a simple Elector.

It is not the present state of the Poll that influences me to decline that honor—for I believe that my friends are sufficiently numerous to secure my Election if I continued to desire it.
Nor am I deterred from continuing to solicit your suffrages by the unprovoked and unlawful falsehoods, and calumnies, uttered by a person who was permitted to interrupt my proceedings on the last day of the poll, the purpose as it seemed to me, of exciting a wicked faction to inflict on my unhappy family, another clamorous and outrageous insult.

But I that God and Her Majesty that public duties I furnish me quite occupation enough with, but this additional tax of my time, and it is to be hoped that the firm ness and good order to be manifested by our Sheriff in this his own Court by the assistance of the Magistracy and Constabulary of the County, will be sufficient to secure a peaceable termination to the Poll.

Let us my friends and fellow Electors, unite for this object and to maintain to every individual freeholder, the right and lawful privilege of giving his votes to whomsoever he pleases, and to ensure a peaceable and satisfactory termination of the Poll.
I shall now my friends descend from the Candidates platform, to exercise my right in common with you all—to give me votes as I shall judge most proper—to secure in the persons of our Representatives, the honor of our County in particular, and by the wisdom of their counsels, the peace and prosperity of the Province.—And may God grant that we may choose so impartially, wisely and discreetly as to give us fair reason to hope that by his gracious providence these great ends may be obtained.

you will meet, comparatively speaking, with the almost individual support of the Parishes

Your flattering communication gratifies me much, not that I had previously any doubt of your support at the ensuing Election, but because, coming as it does from so many of the influential inhabitants of this section of the County; it gives me assurance that those who know me best, entertain for me an affectionate regard, and have confidence in my integrity, independence and zeal for promoting the true interests of the County.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your most obedient Servant,
ROBERT THOMSON.
To Col. Hugh MacKay, J.C.P. and others.

To the Independent Freeholders of the COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.
Gentlemen,
You are once more about to exercise the highest privilege of British subjects; that, of choosing persons to represent you in the Legislation of the Country—and I beg most respectfully to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages on that important occasion.

After a residence of twenty years among you, you cannot be unacquainted with my political opinions; nor, can you doubt from my past conduct my inclination to promote the public good. I am aware that it is usual for Candidates for public favour, to promise much, when they intend to perform little.
Such however has not been the plan hitherto pursued by me; nor do I intend to revert to it now. But should I be distinguished by the honour of your Choice at the ensuing Election, I pledge myself to use my best exertions to promote your interests, which are identified with my own, and that, neither Executive patronage nor emolument shall ever, prevent me from doing all in my power to advance the prosperity of the Province in General, and to promote the various interests of this County in particular.

I should have much pleasure, in paying my respects to you in person; but, as it is impossible (owing to the advanced state of the season and the shortness of the notice,) to wait upon each of you, I call upon a few, might appear invidious; and is at variance with my feelings of equal respect for every upright Freeholder, what ever may be his situation in life. This must be my apology for the omission of the usual observances on such occasions.

I am, Gentlemen, most respectfully,
Your Obedient Servant,
ROBERT THOMSON.
St. George, N. B., 24th December, 1842.

TO THE ELECTORS OF CHARLOTTE.
The Subscriber again offers himself as a Candidate to represent you in the next General Assembly.
The past conduct of a Member, furnishes the best assurance of his future course. By this every Candidate should be tried, and his election should be in accordance with the result of such trial.
In the case of new Candidates other considerations must of course govern the choice of the Electors.
The present crisis in our public affairs is important, and demands the selection of men in whose fidelity to their interests, the constituency have good reason to confide.

Your most Obedient,
and Humble Servant,
GEORGE S. HILL.
16th December, 1842.

To the Independent Electors of the
COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.
Gentlemen,
Having received a Requisition from a number of respectable Freeholders of the County, wishing me to come forward as a Candidate at the approaching Election, I have even at this late hour, thought it my duty to comply with their wishes, and shall therefore place myself before you at the Hous-ings, with a lively hope that you will, after calmly deliberating upon unbiased principle, judge me worthy of your confidence.

I wish it to be understood that I feel myself independent of the frowns or threats of every fellow creature, and wish you to exercise a similar spirit in giving your Votes according to your own judgment, which is the most noble privilege allowed a British subject.
I cannot but consider it unfortunate that I am less known to you than most others who have come out on similar occasions, but as that has been owing to the nature of my occupation, that of a Farmer, which occupies me chiefly at home, I hope it may prove no detrimment on this occasion, it, however, puts me under the necessity of saying more about myself, than I should otherwise do, and will accordingly state that I was born among you in this County under the British Government, which I consider the best in the world.

Among its loyal Inhabitants I have indu-stiously spent my days, and have passed the middle age of man, without any reproachful charge having been made against my character.
I am fully aware of the heavy charge that will devolve upon a new House, in settling the embarrassed affairs of the Province. Should you consider that the share of integrity or abilities I am possessed of, can be instrumental in furthering that object, then you will accord me your free voluntary votes which is all I ask.

And remain, Gentlemen,
Truly your Friend,
JOSHUA KNIGHT.
Pennfield, 19th December, 1842.

COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.
Gentlemen,
The House of Assembly of this Province having been dissolved, you are again called upon to exercise one of the most important privileges conferred by the British Constitution, that of electing fit and proper persons to represent you in our Provincial Parliament, and this too, at a time, when from the state of public affairs in the Province, it peculiarly behoves you to choose with judgment and discretion.

I should not, at such a time have voluntarily offered myself to your choice, feeling myself incompetent to fear, properly to discharge the duties which will devolve on your Representative; but having received a Requisition from some of my fellow townsmen, and been urged by many of you in other parts of the County to offer as a Candidate, I am induced to do so, and therefore solicit your suffrages and support at the approaching Election.

Should I succeed in becoming one of your Representatives, I can only say, that as far as my humble abilities can be of use, they shall be at your service; and that I shall endeavour fearlessly and independently, to promote the interests of the County I represent.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your faithful Servant, condition; and from my daily services during fifteen Legislative Sessions, you have had ample means of forming a correct opinion of my Public conduct.
