The many friends of Mr. Craig Todd will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from a paralytic stroke and that his health is showing a gradual but steady improvement.

Every member is requested to be present at the regular session of Crescent Lodge, I.O.O.F., on Thursday night. Business of the utmost importance will be brought up.

The towns of Wolfville and Kentville have decided to set aside two weeks, this allowing the people to transact business in either town with little difficulty and small expense.

Surprise parties were tendered Mrs. Marjorie Jones, Carmen Piggott and Mrs. Mary Anthony, respectively, last week. The occasion being the 10th birthday of each of these young people. Pleasant evenings were spent and delightful refreshments served at each party.

Much to the regret of both pupils and parents, Miss Gladys Mullan, the popular teacher in the Primary Dept. of Bridgetown schools, has been obliged to retire from the school room for a little period and has gone to her home in Albany. During her absence her department is being conducted by Mrs. A. O. Price.

Mr. Fred Cox reports the following sales recently made through the A. V. R. E. A.—the farm of S. C. Foster, North Kingston to M. W. Kelly, of New Ross; the residence of J. F. Harris, Middleboro, to Misses Cox and Carter, of Barwick; the property of James Seaman, Auburn, to S. C. Foster, North Kingston.

The engagement is announced of Florence Mary, daughter of L. M. Fortier, and the late Mrs. Fortier, of The Gables, Annapolis Royal, to Arthur Tilly of the teaching staff of William Tilly, of Columbia University, formerly of Sydney, N. S. W. The marriage to take place at Annapolis Royal, December 29th.

Miss Vera Langille, who is a valued member of St. George's choir, was presented with a purse of money from the choir and congregation last night as an evidence of their regard and good wishes. The Camp Fire Girl, of whom Miss Langille is the leader, gave a shower for her at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, on Wednesday evening, October 12th, when she was the recipient of many other gifts. Her marriage to P. M. Dargie took place at Robie St. Church, Halifax, recently.—Spectator.

OBITUARY

MRS. GEORGINA BURKS

The death took place on Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Palfrey, of Mrs. Georgina Burks. The deceased, who was the last remaining member of her family, was a daughter of the late Capt. Peter McKay, and her death was not unexpected, being due to a paralytic stroke the result of shock caused by the intelligence a month ago of the death of her only remaining brother, Mr. W. B. McKay, of Sussex, for whom she entertained the deepest affection.

The late Mrs. Burks was a native of Bridgetown and an ideal wife and mother who always retained in a most marked degree the affection of the various members of her family.

She leaves to mourn their loss, a son, Robert and Percy, of Bridgetown, and Stewart, of Los Angeles. Two daughters, Mrs. Arthur Palfrey, of Bridgetown, and Mrs. George Jones, of Warren, Ohio.

Mrs. Burks' husband, the late W. H. Burks, predeceased her by four years and was a member of the Methodist Church and the funeral services will be conducted by Rev. J. H. Froese, assisted by Rev. Dr. Jost.

POPULAR LIGHT SUPT. LEAVING

It will be learned with general regret that Mr. H. J. Campbell, manager here for the past three years for the Bridgetown Electric Light Company, leaves his connection with them at the end of the present month and leaves with Mrs. Campbell for Malboro, where he has accepted a position of Supt. with the Nova Scotia Commission whose power plant in Lunenburg is situated on the Mash a Mash river and is furnishing power to a number of towns and country districts in the county. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have enjoyed a good degree of popularity and while their departure is regretted, pleasure is felt that Mr. Campbell's change of position spells promotion. He will, it is understood, be succeeded here by Mr. Wm. Chisholm, of Halifax.

OBITUARY

MR. PERRY SIMS

Death removed last week one of the oldest citizens of Inglewood. Perry Sims, Mr. Sims had been in poor health for some time past. He leaves one son, Arthur Sims. The funeral was conducted on Sunday afternoon by Rev. C. W. Robinson, interment in Riverside Cemetery. At the time of his death Mr. Sims was 64 years of age and was a well known figure in the town where he frequently took contracts at building and erecting. His opinion on labor questions was highly valued by his colored brethren in Inglewood and he was distinguished by much native shrewdness.

DR. ARCHIBALD OPENS PRACTICE AT LAWRENCETOWN

Dr. William C. Archibald, a graduate in Arts of Acadia and in medicine of McGill, is opening up the practice of his profession in Lawrencetown. Dr. Archibald will prove a decided acquisition to the professional men of our sister town. He had four years of overseas service as a member of McGill Hospital Unit and also since graduation has had considerable experience at Montreal General Hospital. His qualifications and experience ensure for him the best of success.

OBITUARY

MRS. J. J. BUCKLER

The death took place suddenly at her home in Dalhousie on Wednesday last of Mrs. J. J. Buckler, widow of the late Capt. J. J. Buckler, in the 69th year of her age.

Mrs. Buckler had been enjoying usual health and there was no special warning of the approaching end. She retired to bed, and the family were much surprised and grieved upon visiting her room next morning to find that the messenger of death had come in the night and carried her to the Great Beyond.

Mrs. Buckler was a woman who was highly respected and deserved the highest esteem among her acquaintances for her many good qualities and well ordered Christian life.

She leaves to mourn their loss three sons: Aard, Harley and Harold, at home; two daughters, Mrs. P. F. Harnish, of Annapolis, and Mrs. Howard Anderson, of Bridgetown.

The funeral services which were largely attended, were conducted by Rev. E. E. Reeks, and interment was in Lakeside Cemetery, Dalhousie.

MURDER CASE IN GUINEA

No Stone Being Left Unturned To Reveal Murderer—Real Clues Absent So Far

(Clementsport)

The murder case in Guinea is affording excellent material for the press—column after column day after day, with a rebash of the heart-rending details and perhaps with one new fact or suggestion and a few photos graphs thrown in from the reports. The simple fact is that the detective and the Attorney General's Dept. are hard at work and not leaving a stone unturned to bring the murderer to justice and very properly are not giving out to correspondents anything of value, as that would make it unreliable as the wind and does nothing to improve the minds of the voracious readers. We sometimes wonder why parents object to their children reading the "Nick Carter" stories and "time novels" and "police gazette" and yet revel in the sensational write ups of such cases as "The Perry and the Berry Murders". It may be possible that the murderer himself will read these lines. If so, he will know that he has not a happy moment. His dreams are troubled, he sees again the tragic scene. His waking hours are filled with fear for he knows that relentless justice is pursuing him up and down the length of days, and cogging his footsteps until at last it catches him. It is only a matter of time no murderer finally escapes and the longer he is at large the more miserable he is. The murderer of Thomas Berry will be found.

PORT GEORGE
