

TWO POPULAR AMERICAN NOVELS

Formerly published at $1.50, and now offered in handsome cloth-bound editions at 75 cents each.

QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER

AND MASON'S CORNER FOLKS

BY CHARLES FELTON PIDGIN

The most popular New England novel ever written, and the most interesting and picturesque tale of New England home life. Two hundred and fifty thousand copies have been sold, and there seems to be no diminution in its popularity.

"The village gossips wondered who he was, what he was, what he came for, and how long he intended to stay."

*Large 12mo, cloth bound, with 16 full-page illustrations.
Price, 75 cents.*

BLANNERHASSETT

OR THE DECREES OF FATE

A Romance Founded Upon Events in American History.

By CHARLES FELTON PIDGIN

One of the most successful of American historical novels of recent years. A fascinating tale of the times of Aaron Burr and Alexander Hamilton.

"The narrative is well sustained, the style vigorous and attractive, and the situations are so intelligently managed and humorously connected, that it is with regret that the reader lays down the book and contemplates the finis."—New Orleans Picayune.

"The incidents of the tale are intensely dramatic, and the pictures by C. H. Stephens are among the most striking ever given to any historical novel."—Boston Globe.

*Large 12mo, cloth bound, with 12 full-page illustrations
by C. H. Stephens. Price, 75 cents.*

Either of the above books sent postpaid on receipt of price.

GROSSET & DUNLAP

11 E. 16TH STREET :: :: NEW YORK