

XXIII. A letter of the English Ambassador to Edward Barton.	62
XXIV. A commaundement obtained of the Grand Signor by W. Hareborne .	63
XXV. A letter of William Hareborne to T. Typton .	64
XXVI. Registrum valoris navium, &c. per trirenes Argenses ereptorum .	67
XXVII. A letter to Assan Aga .	68
XXVIII. The originall of the first voyage for traffique into Marocco. 1551 .	69
XXIX. The second voyage to Barbary. 1552 .	70
XXX. A voyage into Guinea and Benin. 1553 .	73
XXXI. A briefe description of Afrike by Richard Eden .	74
XXXII. Anthonie Pinteado, his letters patents from the king of Portugal .	82
XXXIII. The letter of Don Lewis to Anthonie Pinteado .	83
XXXIV. The second voyage to Guinea .	84
XXXV. The first voyage made by William Towrson to Guinea.	102
XXXVI. The second voyage of W. Towrson to Guinea .	130
XXXVII. The third voyage of W. Towrson to Guinea .	146
XXXVIII. Certaine articles deliuered to Mr. John Lock .	164
XXXIX. A letter of John Lock to the company of marchants adventurers for Guinea .	165
XL. The relation of William Rutter to Anthony Hickman touching a voyage to Guinea. 1562 .	167
XLI. A meeting at Sir William Gerard's house. 1564 .	170
XLII. Relations extracted from Sir John Hawkin's voyage .	171
XLIII. The voyage of George Fenner to Guinea written by Walter Wren .	173
XLIV. The ambassage of Edmund Hogan to the Emperor of Morocco. 1577 .	188
XLV. The voyage of Thomas Stukeley into Barbary .	195
XLVI. Certaine reports of the province of China learned from Portugalls taken prisoners .	197
XLVII. Of the island Japan and other isles, by R. Willes .	223
XLVIII. An excellent treatise of the kingdom of China printed at Macao. 1590 .	241
XLIX. A letter by Thomas Stevens to his father .	264
L. A briefe relation of the kingdom of Pegu .	271