

The Canadian Literary News Letter and Booksellers' Advertiser.

The Subscriber begs to state, for the information of the Trade in the United States and Great Britain, that the plan of publication which he has adopted is such as to ensure for the Literary News Letter at once a large and influential body of readers. The principal Booksellers in the Province receive each from 250 to 500 copies, which they carefully distribute either gratuitously or for a very small subscription, sufficient merely to cover postage, among the principal Merchants, Professional Gentlemen, Mechanics Institutes, Public Libraries, &c., in their several localities. As they are charged little more than the cost of paper, the Subscriber must depend, for the continuance of the paper, on the liberal support of the Trade in advertising. The terms are 3d or 5 cents per line. Advertisers in the United States may communicate direct with the Subscriber, and those in Britain with Messrs. Trubner & Co., Paternoster Row, London.
