*The above sum, together with $6 otherwise appropriated have been sent from a member of the Church, being the amount of the Lord's portion of his increase after the ordinary contributions to the Schemes of the Church. If members of the Church generally set apart a portion for the Lord, our missionary objects would not languish for want of support.

PUBLICATION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF PHILADELPHIA.

These valuable Books now amount to 580 vols. besides a variety of smaller articles. They are divided into three classes—the Ministers' Library of 54 volumes; the Congregational of 262 volumes, and the Sabbath School Library of 221 volumes. Of each Library the whole or a part can be purchased, and a liberal dis-cout is generally given when $12 worth is taken.

The Sabbath School books are confessed to be very superior.

A Library of 100 volumes can be had for $11 50, one of 150 volumes for $21, and a larger in proportion.

The Board publishes a semi-monthly S. School Visitor, in quarto, the best and cheapest paper of the kind.

The Board supplies a variety of Catechisms, Hymns, Music, Manuals for the Sabbath School and Bible Classes Roll and Minute Books, School Tickets, &c.

All Orders promptly attended to by
 REV. ANDW. KENNEDY,
 Agent for the Board,
 London, C. W

Subscribers for the Princeton Review, still carried on as ably as ever, are solicited for 1860. It will continue to be supplied to Ministers for $2 60, to students for $2 25, pre-paid
