

"Admit him, ere his anger burn,
His feet, departed, ne'er return;
Admit him, or the hour's at hand,
You'll at his door rejected stand."

THE RESPONSIVE EXERCISE, upon pp. 100, 101, of the Question Book, may well be used as the closing exercise in every school. The responses in each case should be given from memory.

THE ORDER sketched above may be adapted to an exercise who ly with a class; wholly with the school; or, partly with both class and school. A profitable service, additional to the school session, may also be held, in order to review more fully.

THE RESULT, in each case, should be a renewal of knowledge; a clearing up of facts; an exaltation of Christ; and his hearty acceptance by many who had never known him.

A TEXT FOR TEACHERS.

For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater; so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. Isa. 55. 10, 11.
