TORONTO, DECEMBER, 1886.

Our Sunday-School Periodicals for 1887.

We are thankful for the greatly increased patronage of our Sunday-school periodicals during the past year. We hope for the continuance in still increased measure. We believe that our several periodicals will be more helpful and more interesting than ever before. Neither money nor labor shall be spared in making them the best, the most attractive, and the cheapest lesson helps and Sunday-school papers in the world.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL BANNER will continue to adopt every improvement that can be desired for increasing its efficiency as a teacher's help. A series of attractive frontispieces to each number, giving full page engravings of some striking scene in Bible lands, will be presented, and also, as opportunity offers, smaller engravings on the text. In order that every teacher in every school of the Methodist Church may have the aid of this unsurpassed teacher's monthly, its price will be uniformly sixty cents a copy, whether taken singly or in any quantity. This gives the individual teacher an equal advantage with the school which can take a large number. Thus will place in the hands of a teacher twelve times thirty-two pages—384 pages a year—of rich, full, concise, practical lesson notes and teacher's hints, adapted for the several grades of the Sabbath-school, and well printed in clear type on good paper.

PLEASANT HOURS

was never so popular as during the past year. We are determined that the next year it shall be better still. While retaining the same general features, it will introduce marked improvements of illustration and context. It will, as heretofore, give special prominence to Christian missions—especially those of our own Church—to temperance, and Canadian and patriotic topics. It is a quarto eight-page paper, issued every fortnight, at the following low prices:—

PLEASANT HOURS, 8pp. 4to, every fortnight; single copies, 30 cents; less than twenty copies, 25 cents; over twenty copies, 22 cents.

HOME AND SCHOOL

will be of the same general character as PLEASANT HOURS, but of a somewhat superior grade, with more copious lesson notes and more varied home reading. These papers are, for size, and price, and excellence, the cheapest in the world. We challenge comparison. They are even ordered from the United States and Australia, as superior to anything that can be produced for the price in those countries. Issued on alternate Saturdays, they furnish a paper for every Sunday in the year. They both abound in choice pictures, poems, stories, and sketches, in temperance and missionary sentiment, in loyalty to Queen and country; and both have copious lesson notes. Many schools circulate these papers instead of library books—finding them fresher, brighter, more attractive, and much cheaper.

HOME AND SCHOOL, 8pp. 4to, every fortnight; single copies, 30 cents; less than twenty copies, 25 cents; over twenty copies, 22 cents.

Both these papers will be printed from new type leaded, and will be much more attractive than ever.

OUR NEW PAPER—HAPPY DAYS, has been a great success and has at once reached a large circulation. It is of the same grade.
