

Dr. J. Acheson Wilkin and Dr. R. J. Biackham, practitioners London. They have found these tablets of value in the neuralgias and nervous headaches resulting from over-work and prolonged mental strain, paroxysmal attacks of sciatica, brow-ague, painful mensuration, la grippe and allied conditions. Indeed the practitioner who has such cases as the latter come under his observation, and who attempts their relief by opiates and stronger drugs, when such an sufficient and harmless an agent can be used, commits a grave error.

Experience goes to prove that two antikamnia tablets in an ounce of sherry wine, taken every two or four hours, will carry the patient through these painful periods with great satisfaction.—Medical Reprint, London, Eng.

A. CONSERVATIVE HOUSE.

Some of the members of the medical profession would open their eyes could they look over the files of the Denver Chemical Mfg. Co., manufacturers of Antiphlogistine, and see the many, many requests for window hangers, store advertising, etc., which they are constantly refusing. This company could get an almost unlimited amount of advertising, good advertising too, at no expense, except for the printing of the cards or booklets, if they did not have too great a pride in the honorable position which they occupy as purveyors to the medical profession. Perhaps they feel the ethical requirements of their position more keenly on account of the personnel of the company. Half the members of the board of directors are physicians who have spent each of them many years in active practice, the president of the company being an ex-president of the State Society, and the head of the advertising department is himself a physician, and was for many years the secretary of his County Society.

With such a personnel, it is not surprising that the advertising is not only strictly ethical, but even ultraconservative in spirit.

CONVICTED OF SUBSTITUTION.

As, in the realm of logic, one fact is worth a thousand theories, so, in connection with the practice of substitution by the druggist, one concrete instance will more clearly convince the physician of the reality and prevalence of this evil than will many arguments. In Montreal, Canada, one H. H. Lyons who conducted three retail drug stores and who calls himself the "King of Cut-rate Druggists," has evidently been
