No man can take less pains than to hold his tongue. Hear much and speak little; for the tongue is the instrument of the greatest good and greatest evil that is done in the world,—Sir Walter Raleigh.

Be punctual in the fulfilment of duty; prompt in the settlement of your obligations and earnest in your every day business, and then you have grund work for the substantial man. Be devoted, consistent, prayerful and humble in your walk as a christian, and you have the stamp of your high calling ever open to the eyes of your Creator, and a shining light to those around you. to those around you.

FEEDING UPON CHRIST.

"But how are we to feed upon him?" some may ask. We reply the Written Word reveals Him, and the Holy Ghost given unto us testifies of Him. Thus, pondering the Holy Scriptures in dependence on the Holy Ghost, and receiving God's thoughts in faith, we enter into the Divine testimony of Jesus the Son of God.—His personal glories, His inished work, what he was and is to God, what He is to us and for us; thus our hearts are gladdened, and our inner man strengthened. In this way we shall be so attracted to Him, so taken up with His perfections, that in one measure we shall be able to say, "We beheld His
