

Revival Work at Poland.

Editor BRITISH AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN
Doubtless it will interest the many readers of the Presbyterian, to hear of the wonderful work of grace going on now at Poland. A mission station in the Brockville Presbytery, under the charge of Mr. John K. Baillie, student of Presbyterian College, Montreal. Mr. Baillie found this field in a most deplorable spiritual condition. He at once saw the great need of special work, and spoke to me for assistance in holding Evangelistic services. I readily consented to render him all the assistance I could, and after much prayer and supplication to God for his guidance and blessing on purpose to commence on Monday night, June 5th, meetings every night for two weeks. We commenced on the said night, a man kindly granting us the use of his hall. The first meeting was not large but a deep interest was manifested in the work. Twelve remained for the anxious meeting, eight found peace and went to their homes rejoicing in Jesus. The attendance increased more and more every night. The number of anxious inquirers becoming greater also. Last night (Thursday) we had a glorious meeting. The hall was filled, after service only a few went away, nearly the whole meeting remained, some came a distance of eight miles. A deep solemnity prevailed. Many were touched, and under the Spirit's working, were made anxious. Many of the young converts, Bible in hand, assisted us in directing the anxious to the Lamb of God. Oh it was glorious! Truly God was with us. The Spirit worked mightily. It is the Lord's work. At the close of the anxious meeting all who had found Christ, since the meeting began, were requested to hold up their hands, and the number was found to be sixty (60). It is amazing, sixty converts in four nights. We can hardly realize it, although we saw it with our bodily eyes. It is truly God's own work. The place was ripe for this work. There is no excitement whatever. All is calm and quiet. Infidels (there are many here) and all opposed to the work, know not what to say or think of it. They are dumb with astonishment. Some who were opposed to such meetings were drawn out to them and converted. Old and young, men and women. Newly married couples, and some children have been converted. Some whole families have been converted. Some who were deceiving themselves are now undeceived. Oh it is a mighty work! Anxious appears to be spread over the whole place like a fever. During the day many seem anxious to be spoken to wherever we go. The meetings consist of brief prayers, singing of gospel hymns, and short simple gospel addresses. We have prayer meetings half an hour before the large meetings, attended by all the young converts, at which things are explained to them, to remove doubt and strengthen their faith, and requests for prayer for friends, are sent in. The work is wonderful beyond description. The Rev. Mr. MacKenzie of Dalhousie was present with us on Tuesday night, the only outside assistance we have had yet. We are looking for a glorious meeting to-night (Friday). We are going to continue them all next week here, then we are going to commence the same kind of meetings at Darling, my station. Monday the 19th, to continue for two weeks also. I believe a great work will be done there, for the place is ripe unto harvest. I am looking for not less than 100 conversions at Darling this month. The people there are ready waiting for the work; and many prayers are going up to God for the work. Oh what can the Lord not do? We have had some very remarkable answers to prayer this week. Oh let all who read this, thank and praise the Lord for his goodness. We ask the prayers of all of God's people who read these lines for this work, this great work, for it is the work of the Lord. We will send you an account of the work at Darling also. "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake."

THE ACID CURE.

Testimonial from Rev. Alex. Gittay, College Street Presbyterian Church, Toronto, June 6, 1876.
Messrs. J. S. Patterson & Co.,
GENTLEMEN,—Having used the Acetic Acid prepared by Messrs. Counts & Sons, Glasgow, for the past year, I am thoroughly convinced of its efficacy both to prevent and cure disease. I have used it for Colds, Sore Throat, and Indigestion, and in each case I have found great relief, indeed it has proved a complete cure in each case. My object in writing to you concerning this acid is that others may be led to use it and derive as much benefit from its use as I have. I cannot be too thankful to you for directing my attention to this safe and yet efficient help to good health.
The great matter is to get the patient to use the Acid properly, it needs patience. Every one who uses it should have the book of directions which is prepared by Counts & Son.
Hoping that some may be led to try the Acid which has proved a blessing to myself.
I remain, Yours sincerely,
ALEXANDER GILRAY.
