

Five Books to Read this Summer

By
Thomas
Nelson
Page

The Season's Great Success

Gordon Keith

Illustrated
548 Pages
Paper 75c.
Cloth, $1.50

"It takes no effort to read it, it is full of thrilling situations and bright dialogue. Mr. Page is a born story-teller, and though he apparently writes with the greatest of ease, he does not allow his pen to run away with him."—Miss Jeanette L. Gilder, editor of The Critic.

By
Stewart
Edward
White

"A Story of the True North."

Conjuror's House

Illustrated
Cloth only, $1.25

"It is a sudden, passionate love story, with the grand but terrible background of the country north of Hudson's Bay."—Victoria Daily Times.

"The story is pathetic, noble, heroic—powerful in its simplicity."—Canadian Magazine.

By
Robert Nielson
Stephens

A Story of New York Life of To-day.

The Mystery of Murray Davenport

Illustrated
Paper, 75c.
Cloth, $1.25

Katherine Hale, in "The Mail and Empire," says:

"Whoso wishes a fine mystery let him peruse the latest book of Robert Nielson Stephens."

By JAMES WEBER LINN

The Chameleon

"A Helpful Story"

"A book to be widely read and make its mark as a good and wholesome story."—N. Y. Times.

"A study of a type never before exploited in fiction."

Paper 75c., Cloth $1.25

By SEWELL FORD

Horses Nine

Stories of Harness and Saddle

"The best book of its class we have ever read. It knows both 'man' and 'beast'; it has tenderness, dramatic strength and abundant humor, and it rings true in every word."—Cleveland Leader.

Striking Illustrations. Cloth only, $1.25
