The elections for the State of New York have terminated in the triumph of Myrou M. Clark over his opponent ex-Governor Seymour by a majority of 268 opponent ex-Governor Seymour by a majority of 268 votes. In Massachusetts, the "Know-Nothings" have carried every thing before them. The Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor, forty senators, eleven congress men, and a large majority in the House of Represen-tatives owe their election to these rowdy ruffians.

FUNNY BUSINESS .- A single trial is now in progress in one of the Providence (R.I.) courts. Some time since a young lawyer was detected at the Marlboro' Hotel, in this city, dressed in woman's clothes. His female wardrobe—a very valuable one, valued at some hundreds of dollars—was taken from him, and given into the hands of a Providence Policeman, who was to give it to the lawyer's wife. She being away from the place it was not done, and the owner has had the officer arrested for the theft, in keeping the clothes from him. An amusing list of his clothing was published in one of the Providence papers, a few days ago, which showed an extensive female outfit. The case is exciting much interest, as the gentleman, besides being a married man, is a church member, Sunday School Teacher, and holding a good social position.

A YOUNG MONSTER.- We learn from the Detroit Free Press that a young man, or rather a fiend in human shape, named Samuel McDonald, about 17 years of age, was brought before the Police Court on Wed-nesday for inhuman treatment of his own mother.— He had bitten a piece of flesh out of her arm, and she and swore he would run him through. He also swore horrid oaths at his mother, and told her that when he got out of jail he would take her life. He was sentenced by Justice Bagg to ninety days in Jail.

CHURCH AND STATE .- The Boston Transcript has the following : "An unusually large number of clergymen were elected to the Slave Legislature on Mon-day. As far as we are acquainted with the clergymen elect, the Methodists have the largest number of any one denomination, and some of the members of that order who are chosen are marked 'supernumerary' or • superanuated' on the confidence lists. We suppose these terms have no meaning in politics as applied to a new party. Several Universalist clergymen of good abilities are elected to the House of Representatives, and altogether there will be a good sprinkling of ministers in both branches of the General Court."

PROTESTANT DEVELOPMENT .- It has been asserted that some of the Mormon women believed to the homely adage, "sauce for the goose, sauce for the gander," and hence a plurality of husbands should be allowed. The following reproof from President Kimball shows the 'strong-minded women' are asserting their rights among the Mormons, and demand a plu-rality of husbands. The President thus " rakes down" the uneasy woman :- " There are some ladies who are not happy in their present situations; but that woman who cannot be happy with one man, cannot be happy with two, and a man that is not happy with one wife cannot be happy with two, even though they be good women. You know all women are good or ought to be. They were made for an angelic being, and I would be glad to see them act more angelic in their behavior. You are made more angelic, and a little weaker than man. Man is made of rougher material to open the way, cut down bushes, and kill the enakes, that woman may walk along through life, and not soil and tear their skins. When you see a woman with ragged skirts, you may know that she wears the unmentionables, for she is doing the man's business, and has not time to cut off the tags that are hanging around her. From this time henceforth, you may know what woman wears her husband's pants." According to Mormonism, the people of the Union must look out for a castigation "about these days." President Grant, in speaking of the shedding of the blood of Joe Smith, and the consequences to flow therefrom, says :- " Its no matter how much they deal in compromise measures or how often they try to adjust difficulties that thicken around them-it is a stern fact that the people of the United States have shed the blood of the prophets, driven-out the saints of God, rejected the priesthood, and set at nought the holy gospel: and the result of rejecting the gospel has been in every age, a visitation from the chastening hand of the Almighty-which chastisement will be administered in proportion to the magnitude and enormity of Consequently, I look the Lord to use his whip on the refractory son called ' Uncle Sam;' I expect to see him chastised among the, first of the nations. I think Uncle Sam is one of the Lord's boys that he will take the rod to first, and make him dance nimbly to his own tune of "Oh ! Oh ! !" for his transgressions for his high-mindedness and loftiness, for his evil, for rejecting the gospel and causing the earth to dring the bloodof the saints ;-for this, I say, I expect he will be well switched among the first of the sons. I expect John Bull will get the next whipping, and I have no idea of the Lord whipping Russia and letting these refractory sons escape who are better taught-who have had a kind Father teaching them and instructing them by the voice of his elders; sending prophets to them, to warn them late and early, inviting them by the voice of his spirits-crying unto them to repent of their sins and turn unto him; I say, I do not expect he will pass by these refractory sons who have turned a deal ear to all his instructions, maltreating his messengers, and whip those boys who have not been so well in-structed."- Cleveland Herald.
