The Sharp's Self-dumping Rake, bought of you three seasons ago, has done its work well in every way in rough or smooth ground. There are several in this part of the County, and I have yet to hear of any complaint about them. You can dump with your foot in light hay or heavy hay, going up hill or down. Although other rakes are offered at a lower price, where the Sharp Rake is known it takes the lead.

Mr. Kinsman only uses One Horse.

CANAAN, King's Co., N. S.

The Massey Manufacturing Co.:

GENTLEMEN,—Having used one of your two-horse Mowers for two years on an upland farm, and having experienced so much satisfaction. I feel safe in recommending it to others. It cuts as long a swath as any other, and being so light of draft I have found that one horse can mow as much in one day as two can with any other machine. When using one horse, my little boy, only twelve years old, has run the machine day after day, and done as good work as could be desired. There is one other of your machines in the neighbourhood, which is as highly appreciated by its owner as mine. I consider my machine to be worth as much to-day as the day I got it. In fact, in comparing it with others, I am perfectly satisfied.

Yours truly, LAMONT KINSMAN.

The Toronto Mower I bought of you I have used for four seasons to my complete satisfaction in every way. It is easy to handle, easy on a team, and strong enough for any work in a hay field. It is well made, of the best material, and appears now as if it would last a lifetime, although I have given it rough usage on my own and neighbour's fields. I find that it does its work well on rough and stoney ground. The "Toronto" is fast taking the place of old style machines. A single trial of the "Toronto" will convince any farmer that it is a first-class machine.

Pronounced A 1 by Mr. Floyd.

FAIRFIELD, Jan. 14, 1882.

I have used the Toronto Mower three years, and I find her to be satisfactory in every respect, and has cost nothing for repairs. I have never used any other Mower, but think by what I have seen and heard, that the "Toronto" is A 1.

A Superior Machine, not Equalled by any.

LOWER BEDEQUE, P. E. I.

A. P. Tippet & Co.:

GENTLEMEN,—I have much pleasure in stating that the Toronto Reaper, purchased from your agent, Mr. E. Kinsman, last season, is a most superior machine, being light of draft and easily managed, so as to be a success in working in rough land and broken-down grain. I reaped grain last season on very rough land and also much broken down, and I can assure you I was delighted at the way it performed this work. As a shearer it is not equalled by any. Having had nearly twenty years' experience in working and seeing worked the best machines out, I must say the Toronto excels all. I do confidently recommend all my friends, who are wanting a first-class Reaper, to buy the Toronto, as in the long run it will be both time and money saved.

Yours truly,

ARTEMAS LEARD.

Mother and Child.

BY J. B. HARRIS.

"In Smyth street, at an early stage of the fire a woman's horror-stricken face appeared at an upper window and the form of a child appeared in her arms. A wave of flame swept past the window, and mother and child were seen no more."

By the sea the sun shines brightly,
Peaceful flows the river on,
Mirrored in its placid bosom
Lies the city of St. John.

Throng'd with life—her streets re-echo,
With a busy, ceaseless hum;
Woman's laugh and sweet child-voices,
Through her casements rippling come.

Peace and safety seem to hover
Over cot and over hall,
None are dreaming of the danger
That shall soon envelop all.

Hark! from yonder window floating,
Comes a baby's plaintive cry,
Mingling with the tender cadence
Of the mother's lullaby.

"Hush my babe, lie still and slumber,
"Holy angels guard thy bed;
"Heavenly blessings without number,
"Gently falling on thy head."

Hark! another sound, quick drowning
Baby's cry and mother's song,
'Tis the angry, fearful clanging
Of the fire-bell's iron tongue.

See from roof and lattice bursting,
How the red flames leap on high;
See, on viewless coursers charging
Nigher still, and still more nigh—

How they come in maddened fury,
Nothing now their course can stay,
Human skill and might are vanquished,
Naught that lives may bar the way.

Hark! what sound arrests the flying?
What dread sights numbs every eye?
Can it be, 'mid yon red billows,
One is left behind to die?

Yes! beside the open casement,
Terror-stricken, crazed and wild;
While the flames are round her leaping,
Stands the mother with her child.

Ah! sweet babe, no more for ever
Shalt thou hear thy cradle hymn;
Never more, oh! poor young mother,
Shalt thou sing again for him.

Yet an instant, speechless, breathless,
Looked the pitying thousands on,
Then a fierce wave swept the casement,
Child and mother, both were gone.

BABINGTON, Queen's Co., N. B.,
Jan. 17th, 1882.

Daniel Mott, Esq.:

DEAR SIR,—I have used the Toronto which I purchased of you last season, with perfect satisfaction. Several of my neighbours came to see it at work, and pronounced it all that could be wished for in a Mower. It is light of draft, with scarcely any noise while at work. I consider its strength has been well tested, for as I was cutting the first day, I hooked the outside slide in a piece of iron, and bringing the horses to a stand still. I backed out and started all right.

(A Buckeye agent in the neighbourhood reported my mower was used up, but she is all right.)

I have much pleasure in recommending the Toronto Mower to the Farmers.
