

articles carefully this are true to the life as ne error in your three he field. The pointed
ut. The past season
id the birds interfere there was danger to n helped a robin to perimental Farm,

ottawa, Nov. 20, 1900.

e "Wolves in Sheep's ely hope that it may efforts to eradicate this nothing about it in my very truly,

J. Fletcher.

number of the Prince

your subscribers and I
you have afforded us

able information given ng the first settlement information respecting ceived from any other f the Island—from the ne, I beg respectfully t of the Island under laid under the sod.

to whom your corres-
an, and particularly to thought by gentlemen effusion of Mr. Mc-markably sympathetic.

this month in issuing azine, but we trust that occurred. Owing to a with but a short instal-ich we regret, as the Magazine considerably.

on the "Acadian Occu-rentively read. We can regarding the much dis-

s since our beginning, erely wish all the Com-

A postal card sent to us will get you a sample copy of the leading newspaper of P. E. Island.

The Examiner

Either the Daily or the Weekly edition will be sent you at your request.

THE EXAMINER is well printed, contains the most Island news, and is mailed regularly to subscribers.

Weekly Edition, - $1.00 a year, to any address.
Daily Edition, - - $4.00 a year, to any address.

Send for a Sample Copy