

of fire or theft, however, this privilege may be re-exercised at any time during the assignment of the Canadian personnel.

ARTICLE XI

The Government of Burundi shall exempt Canadian personnel from customs duties, excise duties and sales taxes in respect of one motor vehicle imported into Burundi or purchased locally. If the motor vehicle is sold or otherwise disposed of, it shall not be subject to the normal duties and other charges at the rate in force on the date the exemption was given and on the value of the vehicle at the time of disposal.

This privilege may be re-exercised at any time during the period of service in the event of fire, theft, accident, destruction or disposal after a four-year period of service.

ARTICLE XII

The Government of the Republic of Burundi shall exempt Canadian firms and Canadian personnel from all currency exchange restrictions in respect of:

- a) the exportation of salaries, remunerations or other revenues paid by the Government of the Republic of Burundi in FBU francs under a project;
- b) the re-exportation of salaries or remunerations transferred from abroad through authorized banking institutions in Burundi.

ARTICLE XIII

The Government of the Republic of Burundi shall inform Canadian firms and Canadian personnel of local laws and regulations which may concern them in the performance of their duties.

ARTICLE XIV

The Government of the Republic of Burundi shall facilitate the repatriation of Canadian personnel and their dependents in cases where their lives or safety are endangered in the opinion of the Government of Canada or the Government of the Republic of Burundi.