

The recommended action plan is based on the acceptance of the strategy and tactics provided in Section 6. Obviously, adjustments to the action may have to be considered given the inability to move forward on any one of the recommended tactics.