

- (b) Vessels of other participating Member States shall not be subject to any toll charges. However, payment for services rendered shall be made on presentation of detailed invoices based upon customary rates.

Section 13. Expenditures and Payments

All expenditures and payments resulting from the execution of the present Agreement and relating to the provision of services to the participating Member States or their designated Co-operating Agencies shall be entirely borne by those Member States. The Organization shall be required to meet only expenditures incident to the provision of services to itself which it has explicitly requested.

Section 14. Liability

- (a) Each co-operating agency of a participating Member State shall be responsible for claims for damage to property or injury to persons with respect only to activities under the Experiment directly engaged in or performed by that co-operating Agency or its employees;
- (b) Similarly, the Organization shall be responsible for claims for such damage or injury but only with respect to activities engaged in or performed by the Organization or its personnel or consultants;
- (c) Whenever an employee of a co-operating Agency or the Organization is involved in a personal capacity in any litigation, the co-operating Agency or the Organization as the case may be, shall collaborate with Senegalese authorities to facilitate settlement of the litigation.

Section 15. Settlement of Disputes

- (a) Any dispute between the Government of the Republic of Senegal and the Organization which may arise out of the interpretation or execution of the present Agreement shall be settled directly between the parties concerned by arbitration. For the purposes of arbitration, each party concerned shall designate an arbitrator within two months of being so requested and the two arbitrators shall together designate a third arbitrator. If no agreement between the first appointed arbitrators can be obtained to designate a third arbitrator, he shall be designated by the President of the International Court of Justice. The arbitrators shall decide by a majority vote. The cost of arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties concerned.
- (b) The procedure detailed in (a) above shall be adopted mutatis mutandis for the resolution of any dispute of a similar nature which may arise between a participating Member State and the Organization or between any two participating Member States unless otherwise provided for in an individual arrangement which has been agreed between the parties concerned or in the note by which a Member State agrees to be a participating Member State as provided in Section 17(a) below.
- (c) If more than two participating Member States are in dispute among themselves or with the Organization, the procedure detailed in Section 15 (b) above shall be adopted unless otherwise provided for in individual arrangements which have been agreed between the parties concerned or in the note by which a Member State agrees to be a participating Member State as provided in section 17(a) below; except
