

ARTICLE 21

Expenses

For the purposes of extradition:

- a) The Requested State shall bear the expenses incurred in its territory for arrest, detention and any other proceeding in the Requested State, including prosecution pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article 3 of this Treaty.
- b) The Requesting State shall bear the expenses incurred in conveying the person sought from the territory of the Requested State to the territory of the Requesting State.

ARTICLE 22

Conduct of Proceedings

1. In the case of a request for extradition presented by the Hellenic Republic, the Attorney General of Canada shall conduct the extradition proceedings.
2. In the case of a request for extradition presented by Canada, the Department of Justice of the Hellenic Republic and the Prosecutor of the competent Court of Appeal shall conduct the extradition proceedings in accordance with Greek law.

ARTICLE 23

Entry into Force

1. When this Treaty enters into force, it shall abrogate and replace between the Contracting States, the Treaty between the United Kingdom and Greece for the Mutual Surrender of Fugitive Criminals, signed at Athens on September 24, 1910; however, any request for extradition made prior to the entry into force of this Treaty shall continue to be governed by the provisions of the aforementioned Treaty of 1910.
2. This Treaty shall apply to any request made after the date of its entry into force, even if the offence for which extradition is sought was committed before that date.

ARTICLE 24

Approval

1. The Contracting States shall exchange notifications that the legal requirements for the entry into force of this Treaty have been met.
