

There is a deep and enduring bond between Canada and Israel. That has been evident everywhere in my meetings, and in Maureen's, as it has been during your visits to Canada. We thank you for your hospitality now, and for your vigour and your vision always.

Ladies and Gentlemen, would you join me please in a toast. To Israel.