

S.O. 43

indirectly employed therein, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Simcoe North (Mr. Lewis):

That the Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce announce forthwith the policy of the government pertaining to the clothing and textile industry or, in the alternative, resign, having demonstrated such incredible ineptness in discharging the duties of his ministry.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

ROYAL CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE

PERMISSION TO ENGAGE IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING—
MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Nelson A. Riis (Kamloops-Shuswap): Madam Speaker, I rise under the provisions of Standing Order 43 on a matter of urgent and pressing necessity. We note that Treasury Board, under considerable pressure to return to the January 1, 1981, retroactivity RCMP contract date, restored to each member of the force from $750 to $1,600 in back pay, but at the same time cancelled fringe benefits announced two weeks ago. I move, seconded by the hon. member for Winnipeg North Centre (Mr. Knowles):

That since the federal government has again exhibited its inability to deal fairly with the RCMP, the paternalistic divisional representatives system be abolished and that this House urge the government to bring forth a bill to permit the men and women of the RCMP to engage in collective bargaining.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

POLITICAL PARTIES

SELECTION OF RALPH GOODALE AS SASKATCHEWAN LIBERAL
PARTY LEADER—MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. John Evans (Ottawa Centre): Madam Speaker, I rise under the provisions of Standing Order 43 on a matter of urgent and pressing necessity. Given the acclamation on the weekend of one of our former colleagues, Ralph Goodale, as leader of the Liberal Party in Saskatchewan—

Some hon. Members: Order.

Mr. Evans:—I move, seconded by the hon. member for Parkdale-High Park (Mr. Flis):

That this House extends its best wishes to Mr. Goodale and his party and expresses its desire to see a Liberal government in Saskatchewan.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

THE CONSTITUTION

INCORPORATION OF MAGNA CARTA PRINCIPLES—MOTION
UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Donald W. Munro (Esquimalt-Saanich): Madam Speaker, I rise to move a motion under the provisions of Standing Order 43. Today, June 15, being the seven hundred and sixty-sixth anniversary of the signing of the Magna Carta at Runnymede, clauses 4 and 5 of which established the basis in British constitutional law, practice and convention, of which we in Canada are fortunate in being able to count ourselves the beneficiaries, for the right to property and the guarantee against its arbitrary seizure by the state, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Provencher (Mr. Epp):

That this House condemns the government for having rejected a Progressive Conservative amendment to the constitutional proposals which was designed to guarantee to all Canadians the right to the enjoyment of private property and full legal protection against the government's arbitrary seizure or alienation of that property, even 25 per cent of the property of others as provided for, through retroactive application, in their Bill C-48.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

ST. LAWRENCE SEAWAY

CALL FOR TRIPARTITE DISCUSSIONS—MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Jack Murta (Lisgar): Madam Speaker, I rise to move a motion under the provisions of Standing Order 43. Whereas a recent study by the Ontario government's Great Lakes-Seaway Task Force indicates that tanker traffic in the Welland Canal will grind to a halt by 1985 thereby causing a complete collapse of major commodity shipments through the Seaway, I move, seconded by the hon. member for St. Catharines (Mr. Reid):

That the government recognize the serious urgency of this problem by taking immediate steps to prevent the possible collapse of commodity traffic in the Seaway and that, as a first step, the government open in-depth discussions with the government of Ontario and Seaway authorities in the United States in order to begin implementing the task force recommendations designed to stop further erosion of the Seaway's capacity.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?
