Dear Col. Boney,

The Season's Greetings! This note will be too late for Christmas, but will reach you early enough in the New Year to warrant the customary salutation. Then, too, you have "our" card.

I write this, primarily, that you may be on the lookout (if you will be so good) for a letter which I posted yesterday to Mr. Beurell the Assistant Bureau. This man Malloch has been my bane over here. Every thing and every body has been
