

of intellectual culture, but by righteousness that our land can be exalted among the nations. It is by the increase of this, and thus only, that we, as a people, can secure permanent prosperity ; and thus only can we contribute, as a nation, to lead the world onward to the time when God's loving rule over the earth shall be fully completed and revealed, when "the kingdoms of this world shall become the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever."
