

desultory reminiscences of a well spent life, with the words of the Wise Man, applied by the Church to a Confessor Pontiff :—
“Behold a great priest who in his days pleased God,—therefore did the Lord make him great among His people.”

DEO GRATIAS.