

LANDMARKS OF TORONTO.

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.	PAGE	CHAPTER XII.	PAGE
Introductory Remarks—Their Origin and Growth—Their Ministers, Officials and Leading Members, with Other Particulars	1	All Saints'—An Offshoot from St. Luke's and Holy Trinity—A Large Congregation	45
CHAPTER II.		CHAPTER XIII.
Trinity — An Historic Church —Full of Years and Honours	2	St. Andrew's—The summer church on the Island—Its Ministers	51
CHAPTER III.		CHAPTER XIV.
St. George's—The First West End Anglican Parish—Some Notable Parishioners	6	St. Bartholomew's—An East End Rectory in a Quiet Neighbourhood	55
CHAPTER IV.		CHAPTER XV.
St. Paul's—The Old-time Yorkville Place of Worship—The Grammar School	10	Church of the Ascension—A Downtown Parish in Memory of Canon Baldwin	57
CHAPTER V.		CHAPTER XVI.
Holy Trinity—The First Free and Open Church in Toronto — A Gift from England	16	St. Matthias—A Typical High Church Service and Congregation	62
CHAPTER VI.		CHAPTER XVII.
St. Stephen's—The First Church in the City West of Spadina Avenue—Its Founder	24	St. Thomas—A Prosperous Congregation Formed from Small Beginnings	69
CHAPTER VII.		CHAPTER XVIII.
St. John's—The Old Military Church—Its History and Development	29	Grace — A Church Formed from Holy Trinity Congregation.. . . .	75
CHAPTER VIII.		CHAPTER XIX.
Cemetery Chapel—The Predecessor of the present St. Peter's, How the Work was Extended	33	St. Philip's—A West End Parish with a Pleasing Record	76
CHAPTER IX.		CHAPTER XX.
St. Peter's—The Origin of the Church—Who Originated the Building—The First Members	36	St. Mary Magdalene—A Hearty Service and Ritual—A Well-worked Parish	81
CHAPTER X.		CHAPTER XXI.
Church of the Redeemer—The second Yorkville Church—Those Who Built it—A Long Pastorate	40	St. Mary the Virgin—A North-west Parish, Forty Years ago in the Forest	83
CHAPTER XI.		CHAPTER XXII.
St. Luke's—The First Frame Church and its Successor—A Prosperous Work	43	St. Alban's Cathedral—The Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Toronto	84
		CHAPTER XXIII.
		Trinity College—The handsome University Chapel and its History	86