

be immortal, and therefore it is in the wisdom of man, by following the dictates of christianity, to endeavour to secure for himself the blessings of that immortality.

“ All are but parts of one stupendous whole,
“ Whose Body Nature is and God the sole.”

Alexr. Pope.

“ Be ye also perfect, as your Heavenly Father in Heaven is perfect.”

From Scripture.

If then a convocation, as we have suggested in our work on the Canadas, be formed by the christian sects, it is possible a great accession of strength may be given to man's steadiness in following these dictates of christianity. When the united voice of the nation shall have erected a church, founded alone on the Saviour's own words, then the conviction of every individual mind in it, will be sanctioned and confirmed, all its tendencies to waver will be removed, and it will proceed through life with the unshaken firmness of consistency.

N. B. A principal part of the Theory of Creation of this work being founded on the 1st and 2nd verses of the 1st chapter of Genesis, I wished much to add to it the notes of that part of Handell's Creation, relating to those verses, but could not procure them. To any musical lady or gentleman possessing that sublime piece of music, it may perhaps afford additional satisfaction to find its idea carried out and embodied in this work.
