

often as they shall strive to lead back to the way of salvation those families who may have strayed from the path of righteousness; 5th, or exercise their zeal in instructing children in Christian doctrine; 6th, or perform any other pious work that may redound to the well-being of the Association.

All these indulgences are applicable to the Souls in purgatory.

---

PRIVILEGES.

TO MEMBERS IN GENERAL.

The Mass offered up for a deceased member, at any altar whatever, has all the benefits of a privileged altar.

TO PARISH-PRIESTS.

1. They enjoy the benefits of a privileged altar on any three days of the week they choose, provided they have not the benefits of a privileged altar for some other reason.

2. They have the faculty to bless outside of Rome beads, rosaries, crosses, crucifixes, small statues, and medals, and to apply to them all the indulgences which the Sovereign Pontiff usually grants. (1) This faculty, however, is only to be exercised for members already received into the Association: 1st, on the day when they become members; 2d, on the day when they solemnly renew their act of consecration.

(1) These Indulgences are termed Apostolic. The Elenchus can be seen in Beringer (Indulgences, vol. I, page 339.)