BAIRD AND SHERWELL CAPTURE THE DOUBLES

Defeating Burns and Allen, Title Holders, in the Final Game.

WITH CLEVER LAWN TENNIS

Mr. Burns and Miss Baird Are the Winners in the Mixed Doubles.

Toronto's premier pair of tennis experts are Robert Baird and T. Y. Sherwell.

Both were in the finals of the men's open singles competition, and yesterday at Rushmore playing together they gave an exhibition of team work seldom equaled in this city.

To do this they had to beat R. A. Burns and Miss Baird, title-holders, and admittedly a difficult task. The straight affair and that they were able to accomplish this remarkable feat they had to produce a quality of tennis practically unbeatable. Both are tremendous players, and they were everywhere and so completely did they cover the court that no opportunity was given Mr. Burns to play a defensive game most of the time. With Mr. Burns he was forced to play a defensive game most of the time. The vanquished were not lacking, and in fact they were very good. The Bairds were not lacking, and in fact they were very good. The Bairds were not lacking, and in fact they were very good.

It was not as pretty a game from the spectators point of view as games in the semi-finals. There was too much work of Baird and Sherwell allowed to count. And every stroke was counted. Baird and Sherwell were not lacking, and in fact they were very good. The Bairds were not lacking, and in fact they were very good.

The first four games were divided. The title-holders seemed to be out to give the challengers a great game. In the fifth game Baird and Sherwell tightened up and ran out the set. Burns and Baird were being almost outclassed. Final score 6-2.

They put up a grand, if losing, fight in the third set and won four games by his service with telling effect and there Baird and Sherwell tightened up and ran out the set. Burns and Baird were being almost outclassed. Final score 6-2.

Spectators were pleased with the exhibition game. Baird and Sherwell were not lacking, and in fact they were very good. The Bairds were not lacking, and in fact they were very good.

BIG CROWDS ATTEND OPENING OF WHITBY'S ANNUAL HORSE SHOW

Splendid Class of Animals on Exhibit at Public Park and Ring Performances Were Enjoyed by Big Audience—Toronto Exhibitors Were Conspicuous Among the Winners.

WHITBY, July 15.—(Special.)—The first annual horse show in this city, held at the Public Park, was a most successful one. The weather was extremely kind, and a large number of spectators were present. The show was held on the grounds of the Public Park, and was a most successful one. The weather was extremely kind, and a large number of spectators were present. The show was held on the grounds of the Public Park, and was a most successful one.

The performances of the horses in the ring today were of unusual interest to the spectators, especially the classes for certain and an increased attendance is expected for tomorrow, when the show will close.

Exhibitors from Toronto were very much in evidence. The horses owned by Mr. Henry M. Pellatt, Crow and Murray, Joseph Kilgour (Sunnybrook Stables), and R. A. Montgomery, were conspicuous among the winners.

Many Motored to Show. A large number motored down from Toronto and many came over from other towns, Oshawa, to witness the opening of the show.

William Smith, M.P., and W. N. Smith, M.L.A., representatives for South Ontario in the Dominion and Ontario legislatures, were present, and were very much interested in the show.

Western Canoe Men To Change Courses

An executive meeting of the western division of the Canadian Canoe Association was held last evening and the arrangements for the regatta on Saturday were thoroughly gone into.

Owing to some difference of opinion as to the suitability of the Hanlan memorial course in its present state for canoe racing, the executive decided to change the course to the north side of the bay. The new course will be a straight line from the clubhouse of the Toronto Canoe Club, who have kindly thrown open their doors to the different clubs and their friends.
