

to continue before us a few days to discuss the details of the arrangement.

Very truly yours, etc., etc.

(2) An inspector shall be furnished with a copy of his designation to his superior officer who shall be responsible for his conduct in the performance of his duties.

Particulars of classification

(1) II. A. An inspector may be assigned to any unit in which he may be employed or appointed to his superior officer to whom he shall be responsible for his conduct in the performance of his duties.

(2) A. An inspector may be assigned
to any unit in which he may be
employed or appointed to his
superior officer to whom he
shall be responsible for his
conduct in the performance of
his duties.

10. (1) II. A. An inspector may be assigned
to any unit in which he may be
employed or appointed to his
superior officer to whom he
shall be responsible for his
conduct in the performance of
his duties.

(2) A. An inspector may be assigned
to any unit in which he may be
employed or appointed to his
superior officer to whom he
shall be responsible for his
conduct in the performance of
his duties.

(3) A. An inspector may be assigned
to any unit in which he may be
employed or appointed to his
superior officer to whom he
shall be responsible for his
conduct in the performance of
his duties.

(4) A. An inspector may be assigned
to any unit in which he may be
employed or appointed to his
superior officer to whom he
shall be responsible for his
conduct in the performance of his duties.