WE never sold suits at such a low price before, and you can be confident we wouldn't be doing it now if we weren't giving values that are head and shoulders above the average store's $12.50 suits.

A LOW price we'll admit, but built with a value-giving end in view. There's a n. overvaluing amount of style, individuality, and character in these suits—models that are usually seen in only higher priced productions.

Quebec Players Missed Bottle of Doped Booze

It now appears, says The Montreal Star, that President Quinn had been warned by some Ottawa hockey authorities that a conspiracy for a big killing was brewing in Toronto on Thursday last, and that his trip to Toronto was made on purpose to investigate these charges.

When he got there he fell right into the midst of it. Saturday morning the chief conspirator had been waiting for the arrival of the Quebec team.

When Belland, the trainer, went into the bar to have a drink he found the manager, Mr. Quinn, about it. The manager should take a bottle of booze for the boys.

This bottle of booze did arrive at the Quebec dressing room after the second period, but Belland threw it in the sink, where it broke, and then told the manager, Mr. Quinn, about it. The manager should take a bottle of booze for the boys.

The only regret of the officials of the N.H.A. now is that the "booze" was not preserved so that it could have been used as evidence.

An Invitation

INTERCOLLEGIATE TOURNEY ENTRIES

Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Today and Tomorrow Under Varsity Auspices.

The annual intercollegiate boxing, wrestling and fencing tournament is in Toronto this year and will be held under Varsity auspices at the old Central Y.M.C.A. gymnasium, 115 Yonge street, Friday and Saturday nights this week.

There is likely to be a keen struggle as McGill is after some championships. The Varsity has a well-balanced team this year. Although the military drill has interfered to some extent with all forms of athletics still each college has a number of second contingent men on its athletic teams.

Among McGill's entries are a couple of old St. Andrews College boys, who took their ground work under Mr. Chapman, the college instructor, who had the distinction of some years ago of winning the Canadian lightweight wrestling and boxing championships in the one evening.

Varsity will have McGill, last year's intercollegiate champion, in the 145-lb. class against this year. "Mac" is going with the second contingent, and as in the case of all the students, has been granted his year in medicine by the University authorities.

The judges are: Fencing, Walters, Central Y.M.C.A. Wrestling, E. A. Chapman, St. Andrew's College, Boring, J. P. Fitzgerald, Toronto; Lorne Montgomery, McGill University.

Varsity PLAYS QUEENS BASKETBALL TONIGHT

Varsity wind up their basketball season this evening at home with Queen's as their opponents. The fact that they were defeated by McGill twice is no indication that the team is any weaker than in previous years. The Varsity boys proved this on Wednesday at West End Y, when they took the westerners into camp with the score 50-38.

Capt. Preston expects to beat Queen's here, but will not let his squad take any chances of letting Queen's spring the upset.

Varsity will use the regular line-up in the first half, while Knox and Phillips will be given a chance in the latter period to show their class.

The preliminary between O.A.C. and Varsity II. should be some game. The gentlemen farmers are anxious for revenge for their defeat of two weeks ago at Guelph. The blue and white on the other hand are just as confident as usual of pulling out ahead. The first game will start at 8.15 sharp, but seats will be reserved for ladies and their escorts till 8.45.

The line-up for the game at West End Y, Saturday night will be: Hamilton, Forwards, Smith, Johnston, Lees; centre, Mellons, guards, Stevenson, Webster, West End—Forwards, Brennan, Hanna, Farrell; centre, Simpson; guards, Tait, Thompson, Cook. The game will be handled by James Malcolm. A big crowd is anticipated as many of the fans have been waiting for the final clash in the O.A.C. expecting Hamilton and Toronto West End to participate.
