

Dan. Stewart.

employs from 13 to 18 operators and a special cutter. The well assorted stock is imported direct from the English, Scotch and Irish markets.

THIS is a first-class tailoring establishment in every sense of the word. The cut and fit of all garments is guaranteed to give entire satisfaction. Much attention is paid to the finishing of all work in such a manner as to make clothes wear well and retain their shape. He em-

Lewis & Sills.

FOR the purchase of general hardware, no store in the city offers a more complete stock than that of Lewis & Sills, on Westminster Ave. Shelf and heavy hardware, tinware, granite ware, paints, oils, etc., etc., are kept in every variety, suitable for every purpose. They make a specialty of builders' hardware and mechanics' tools, and in the former particular line their stock affords a splendid selection for houses of every description. The firm consists of F. G. Lewis and R. S. Sills.

R. Robertson.

attention is given to Klondike, general mining and logging supplies. The place of business at 20 Cordova Street is most conveniently situated for the shipping and northern, as well as the city trade. The proprietor has had 25 years' experience in this business.

ESTABLISHED in Vancouver nine years ago, the present condition of this establishment is the result of a natural growth. A large stock of clothing, gent's furnishings, hats and caps, etc., is carried, and special

F. Fillion.

SINCE 1891 this grocery store has been catering to the public, giving perfect satisfaction to every individual customer. For their special convenience, orders are called for daily and promptly delivered to all parts of the city. The stock of staple and fancy groceries carried is of the very best. Fresh vegetables are received daily, and fruits of all kinds are kept in season. A specialty is made of fine teas.

Richard Mills.

stock of each, his display of fine footwear being particularly attractive. He carries also a heavy stock of Klondike footwear and leather goods. He has been a successful business man in Vancouver since 1887, and finds his trade larger than ever.

ON the busiest side of Cordova Street, between Carroll and Abbott, is the establishment of Richard Mills, dealer in boots and shoes. He is a manufacturer, as well as dealer, of boots and shoes, rubbers and moccasins, and carries a large Dickinson & Brown.

SITUATED at 322

Westminster Avenue, this firm carries on a large commission business. They handle extensively flour, feed and general produce. In their brands are included Manitoba flour, Ogilvie's well-known "Lake of the Woods" and "Kee-watin," and Armstrong's "Hungarian," all favorably known. They also handle Ogilvie's Special "Klondike" flour. They ship largely over the entire Province and do an extensive business. The firm consists of J. Dickinson and W. R. Brown.

G. W. Hutchings.

the better accommodation of his large stock. Skilled furniture manufacturers and upholsterers are engaged in the large shop in rear of the store. The stock offers a splendid selection to all purchasers.

COMMENCING business in this city as early as 1888, Mr. Hutchings is the oldest furniture dealer in the city today. He has recently removed from Powell St. to his present large premises, on Westminster Ave., built by himself for

J. Sudmin.

DOING business as a Merchant Tailor, and dealing in gentlemen's furnishings, J. Sudmin has a large establishment at the corner of Carrall and Powell Sts. He carries a complete stock of men's clothing, rubber goods, etc., and is prepared to outfit any sized Klondike party at a moment's notice. He also does an extensive trade up the coast in loggers', lumbermen's and prospectors' supplies. The business has been running six years.

