

Currents.—Tendency in the old Soundings to be restored.—Changes of Mouths in a Century inconsiderable.—Return to New Orleans.—Battle-ground.—Sugar-Mill.—Contrast of French and Anglo-American Races.—Causes of Difference.—State and Progress of Negroes in Louisiana	PAGE 111
--	-------------

CHAPTER XXX.

Voyage from New Orleans to Port Hudson.—The Coast, Villas, and Gardens.—Cotton Steamers.—Flat Boats.—Crevasses, Inundations.—Decrease of Steamboat Accidents.—Snag-Boat.—Mosquitoes.—Natural Rafts.—Bartram on buried Trees at Port Hudson.—Dr. Carpenter's Observations.—Landslip described.—Ancient Subsidence in the Delta followed by an upward Movement, deducible from the buried Forest at Port Hudson	129
---	-----

CHAPTER XXXI.

Fontana near Port Hudson.—Lake Solitude.—Floating Island.—Bony Pike.—Story of the Devil's Swamp.—Embarking by Night in Steam-Boat.—Literary Clerk.—Old Levees undermined.—Succession of upright Trees in Bank.—Raccourci Cut-off.—Bar at Mouth of Red River.—Shelly Fresh-water Loam of Natchez.—Recent Ravines in Table-Land.—Bones of extinct Quadrupeds.—Human Fossil Bone.—Question of supposed co-existence of Man with extinct Mammalia discussed.—Tornado at Natchez.—Society, Country Houses, and Gardens.—Landslips.—Indian Antiquities	148
--	-----

CHAPTER XXXII.

Natchez.—Vidalia and Lake Concordia.—Hybernations of Alligator.—Bonfire on Floating Raft.—Grand Gulf.—Magnolia Steamer.—Vicksburg to Jackson (Mississippi) by Railway.—Fossils on Pearl River.—Ordinary at Jackson.—Story of Transfer of State-House from Natchez.—Vote by Ballot.—Popular Election of Judges.—Voyage from Vicksburg to Memphis.—Monotony of River Scenery.—Squall of Wind.—Actors on Board.—Negro mistaken for White.—Manners in the Back-woods.—Inquisitiveness.—Spoilt Children.—Equality and Leveling.—Silence of English Newspapers on Oregon Question.	155
--	-----