

P R E F A C E.

The Caledonia Springs have attained a celebrity which will make some account of their discovery, rise and progress a subject of interest to the public. The proprietor has, therefore, judged it expedient to issue this brief and unpretending sketch, with a view of conveying correct information on the subject, and of still further disseminating a knowledge of the extraordinary efficacy of the waters.