RECIPROCITY.

Editor World: "Walk into my parfor," said the spider to the fly. In accepting the invitation of President Taft to draw up the reciprocity agree-ment, the government of Sir Wilfrid. Laurier represents the poetic fly. The motive of the poetic spider was to obtain a meal; that of President Taft was to head off a Democratic political triumph at the next presidential election. To the ordinary student of let-ters the speech of Sir Wilfrid Laurier is a gem without a setting, an oration without a theme, a sermon without a text. The speech of Hon. Clifford Sifton was a clear business-like analysis of the fundamental principles that underlie the reciprocity agreement. The people of Canada who do their own thinking, and there are a great many "who do some thinking for themselves," realize that Sif-ton's grasp of the question, in all its details, and his courage in stating his views in parliament, are entitled to the zens of this Dominion, whereas the There was a small fire at the Garage gregation of political reminiscences supplemented with flowery phraseology, with the evident design to hide the saltone the control of defence of Sir Wilfrid was a mere as-

Guelph Trades and Labor Council Seek To Enlist Aid of Hamilton Brethren.

HAMILTON, March 17 .- (Special.)-At the regular meeting of the trades and labor council to-night a communication was received from the Guelph Council requesting the local council to endorse a petition to the provincia; government requesting that the employment of prison labor on prison buildings at Guelph be discontinued. The Guelphites state that they did no! object to long term prisoners doing this kind of work, but they protested against short term criminals being put to it, as they claimed that, owing to the short time given them to learn, they were turned out inexperienced workmen. The communication was referred to the executive. Action was deferred on the request of the Work-ingmen's Circle that a May Day cele-
