Heavy Damage to Brewery. On Saturday morning, however, the lightning played serious pranks. The foronto Brewing and Malting Company suffered the most. The tower of their building was struck by one of the first flashes and before the firemen succeeded in extinguishing the flames, $15,000 damage had been done. The smoke was so dense that the fire-fighters were forced back several times, but at last, under Chief Thompson's directions, they managed to confine the flames to the tower.

A large quantity of malt was distributed among ten bins and as this is susceptible to smoke, it is possible that the damage may amount to $50,-
