The statements were read out in court yesterday afternoon, during the hearing of the Phillips case. Mr. Curry had sent a detective to copy them at the registry office.

"I will put in official copies to-morrow." said Crown Attorney Curry.

J. E. Jones, Phillips' counsel, declares that the registration was erroneously but inadvertently made at Toronto as a sworn declaration of ownership instead of at Ottawa as a trade name. In the forenoon George Robert Burt, manager of the Liszt Plano Company, informed the court that some of the books containing the records of the company's transactions with the York Loan in 1903-4-5 had been burned. He denied that one of the books purported to have been in use since 1903 was a new case, and copied out of the original books.
