STEAMER ERINDALE BURNS MANAGER SAW IT IN DREAM

Cook Perishes in Conflagration—
New Boat to Be Put on Route
Some Strange Features.

The steamer Erindale was burned to the water's edge at the wharf at Newcastle at 1.30 yesterday morning. Considerable mystery surrounds the disaster. The cook Mrs. Constantine, was aroused by the smell of smoke and gave the alarm to Thomas G. Jackson, the manager. He jumped out of bed and told her to hurry off the boat while he aroused the crew. She had not been seen since, so it is supposed she was suffocated in the smoke or lost bearings on the boat and fell into the lake. The boat was valued at $15,000, and was insured for about half that amount. The manager believes the Erindale was set on fire by some persons from the outside, as spots of oil are noticed on the pier as the cans had been dropped there. The crew of 15 all escaped when the fire was discovered. It is reported here that a quantity of tar has been found hidden on the east side of the dock.

Manager Walmsley of the local end of the line had a dream that the boat had been burned, and is said to have told his folks about it just before learning of the conflagration.

After the Chicago.

The management announced last night that they would have a boat on to take the place of the Erindale this morning. Manager Jackson went to Kingston yesterday to procure the boat.

It is a pity, for the sake of lacrosse, that a resident rule was not in force in the intermediate C.L.A. series the same as in hockey. Take for instance Louis like Ferguson, Shillburne and Peterson, who began the season, but owing to some little hitch in the management were forced to disband. However, their players went on playing the game and when the season is about over see their players winning games for their respective teams.

burne Free Press has to say this week:

"It is rather too bad that Shillburne, with all his good players, who have made good records in other places this year, did not have a team in the district league. Allan McKim, Leslie Backus and Shad McKim, all Shillburne players, were the stars of the Newmarket team. Backus and Joe Smith did good work for the Arthur Club, and in the championship tie between Dundalk and Markdale, played in our players. Dal McCartney scored four goals out of the seven won by Markdale. Those named with J. D. Madill and three other home boys would make a team that would be hard to beat."

BRITISH BOWLERS' HOLIDAY VIEWED FALLS AT NIAGARA

About Their Training Diet—Golf Tournament Final—
Lacrosse Notes.

Had the British bowlers made a clean record of it the matter of their manner of training might have arisen. Among the local clubs it is agreed that they are none too careful in their diet, accepting everything on the hill of fare with a relish in keeping with their robust constitutions. One of the Scotch members, however, never varied his breakfast at the King Edward—three plates of meat at the table. He liked it, but the price, 45c, "why," said he, "you could get a whole suck for two bob at home."

So much for their eating. It is related that at a banquet here or elsewhere, the tourists' health was drunk in Aqua Pura. "It may be all right to toast in water," said the Scotchman calmly on to respond, "but when you visit us I'll guarantee we'll drink yours in whiskey."

The tourists took a well-earned holiday viewing the Falls yesterday, in company with some Toronto friends. They play in St. Catharines today.

The Hamilton Golf tournament closes tomorrow, after having perfect going weather. There is sure to be a large gallery follow the final in the first flight between A. W. Tillaght of West Philadelphia Country Club and Fritz Martin of Hamilton Club. Both these gentlemen are playing excellent golf, and Mr. Tillaght is picked by the experts to beat Fritz. However, it will be a grand game. It is likely that next year, more American golfers, encouraged by Mr. Tillaght's success, will come over and try for laurels. The arrangement is to be congratulated upon the success of the tournament. It might be mentioned that the facilities afforded the press couldn't be better and the courteous treatment received by them will not be forgotten.

I was finally relieved by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Company, Toronto."

WORLD PEOPLE'S PICNIC.

Big Party Had Jolly Afternoon at Centre Island.

The large nice looking party of people at Centre Island yesterday afternoon was The World picnic. There were about 250 pleasure seekers, and The World and his wife and very numerous evidences that race suicide ideas are absolutely discomfited by the newspaper fraternity. A happy and healthy looking lot of comfortably clad youngsters, redundant with good appetites and sunny smiles and looked after by an immense corps of neatly dressed matrons and spinsters of varying ages, but undoubted comeliness, were found. The glorious weather as an attraction in the popular park and proved that everybody works but father.

Most of the employees of The World newspaper were present with their domestic responsibilities. Formalities were dispensed with, and after a series of enjoyable field sports, more especially designed for the youngsters, the supper was served on long tables to meet very encouraging demands. A pleasing feature was a presentation of a carving set to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur DeCarle, who were recently married. H. E. Smallpiece made the presentation on behalf of Mr. DeCarle's many friends in the composing room. The recipient, a young man, has been with The World for many years, and has well earned the forms of amusement were found. The men smoked cigars and tobacco, which had graciously been sent over by the American Tobacco Co. and S. Davis & Sons. Early in the night most of the party crossed to the city, many of the men to go to work and the day staff to strike for home and put tired babies to bed. It was a great day. The World's picnic day always is, or should be.

The results:
Child's race, under 8, 50 yards—F. A. Evans and Tom Kerr, tie; Alf Rubbra, 2. James E. Hatton, 3. Alida L. Collett, 4.
Boys' race, under 12, 50 yards—H. Wick, 1. James Hamby, 2. N. Hewitt, 3.
Girls' race, under 12—Muriel Kerr, 1.

It is announced from San Francisco that Jimmy Britt and Eddie Hanson have been presented to the Normal School. The details of the match have not yet been given out.
The first race in the series for the Fisher Cup, between the Ironbuds and the Asa, the Canada challenger, will be sailed off Charlotte at 11 o'clock to-morrow.
