WOMAN'S WORLD.

THE LADY WITH A POCKET IN WORLD'S PATTERN DEPARTMENT. Designed by Mildred Cassells.

BOYS' KNICKERBOCKERS—(1048)

Knickerbockers are being worn more by small boys this season than ever and many times a smart suit can be obtained by combining some fetching blouse with these bloomers, which make a waist appear more attractive than the straight pants. Particular attention is being given to bloomers made of wash materials, and many smart designs are to be had at the shops, such as striped or plain galatea cloth, which is very neat and laundries well. Other materials that will develop nicely are cotton, or linen duck, woolen material will make up attractively as well.

World Pattern Department.

I've wondered what the charm could be Imbued her with placidity!
'Twas only lately I could guess—
The lady had a pocket in her dress!

No nervous search in belt to find A truant kerchief—left behind! Or quaking when a sneeze doth press This lady with a pocket in her dress!

No awful hunt to find her purse While someone waits—to make it worse Serene and calm in time of stress The lady with a pocket in her dress! She sits to sew, her thimble's there All ready, waiting lady fair!
I envy her I do confess
This lady with a pocket in her dress!

Wee Jeannie frets—her hand slips in To find some treasure—trove therein! Her quiet way doth me impress This lady with a pocket in her dress!

A face so smooth and sweet and fair It radiates that peaceful air Of one who doth her soul possess! This lady with a pocket in her dress! Anna Irwin. Hamilton, Ont.

Music as a Career.

"I have been asked if music is a fitting career for a woman," says Mme. Schumann-Heink. "I most decidedly say that it is. Women have won distinction in every branch of the art. They have won renown as singers, planists, violinists, cellists, as well as composers, and I know of one instance as a manager. I have sung with clubs where the director of the organization was a woman, and have also been invited to sing during this season with an orchestra, composed entirely of women, including the tympani player. The same opportunities are open to the woman as to a man. They must all begin CAUTION—Be careful to enclose

Dr. Pierce's medicines are made from harmless but efficient medical roots found growing in our American forests. The Indians knew of the marvelous curative value of some of these roots and imparted that knowledge to some of the friendlier whites, and gradually some of the more progressive physicians came to test and use them, and ever since they have grown in favor by reason of their superior curative virtues and their safe and harmless qualifies.

It is going to be fashionable this winter to wear a fur coat with a light cloth skirt and, for morning wear, nothing will quite equal the elegance of the seal coat and the pale blue skirt.

Short Jackets of sable, seal, Persian lamb and imitation furs, dark in cotor and durable in texture. will be worn for morning and for informal occasions, while the skirts under the fur coats will be in turquoise blue; in pale rose colored cloth and in light green. This is to be one of the smart fads of the winter. And, as it is not an expensive fad, there is little reason why it should not be a popular one. "A lidy needs at least two fur coats," said a furrier. "And it would be better if she could have three. For morning wear she can put on a seal coat, wearing a plain walking skirt of a contrasting color. For afternoons she will want an ermine, or a sable, or a handsome long-haired fur, of some other variety. The more elegant the better.
